

THE ELMS

1933

Published by the Students of
ELMHURST COLLEGE
ELMHURST, ILLINOIS

The
1933 ELMS

Foreword

THE 1933 Elms staff is continuing the precedent established by last year's staff in publishing an annual without a formal theme. However, by means of the colorful border and the light, occasionally humorous tone of the majority of the write-ups, we are attempting to convey the spirit of good cheer and recovery which is becoming evident in various tangible ways.

And so, reader and gazer upon pictures, we leave this book in your gentle hands, and if it occasionally causes a smile to break the monotonous regularity of your features, or if it makes you forget, for a little while, that this life may be more than a vale of tears, we shall feel that we have accomplished a little something worthwhile.

The 1933 ELMS

Dedication

TO DR. DANIEL D. IRION, President Emeritus, who has completed his fiftieth year as a member of the Administrative body of Elmhurst College, we dedicate the 1933 Elms, in the hope that the slight flippancy of tone occasionally noticeable throughout the book will not be taken amiss, but in the spirit in which it was written.

The
1933 ELMS

Table of Contents

- Purveyors of Knowledge
- Imbibers of Learning
- Results of Attacks of Poetic Horrors
- Life-blood of the Campus
- Maker of Men
- Tinpan Alley
- What to Get and Where to Get It

The
1933 ELMS

Purveyors of Knowledge

The
1933 ELMS

President Timothy Lehmann

THIS SPRING President Lehmann finished his great task of completing the $1,800,000 endowment campaign. Due to his ability and to the tremendous energy with which he worked in this cause he has made it possible for Elmhurst College to receive full recognition in the near future.

At the commencement exercises of 1932, President Lehmann was awarded the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Eden Seminary.

THEOPHIL W. MUELLER, A.M.

Dean, Registrar and Professor of Sociology

Elmhurst College 1912; Eden Theological Seminary, 1915; Adelbert College of Western Reserve University, A.M., 1920; Western Reserve University, A.M., 1921; University of Chicago, Summer Quarters, 1923, 1924, 1925; 1931-32, Three Quarters; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1921—.

GENEVIEVE STAUDT, A.B., A.M.

Assistant Professor of Education and Dean of Women

Iowa State Teachers College, A.B., 1919; State University of Iowa, A.M., 1925; State University of Iowa, 1930-31; Instructor, Extension Department, Iowa State Teachers College, Summers, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1930; Dean, Junior College, Clarinda, Iowa, 1926-28; Assistant Professor, Elmhurst College, 1931—.

DANIEL IRION, D.D.

President Emeritus, Professor of Hebrew and New Testament Greek

Elmhurst College, 1874; Eden Theological Seminary, 1877; Instructor, Elmhurst College, 1877-1880; President, Elmhurst College, 1887-1919; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1919—.

CHRISTIAN G. STANGER, A.M.

Professor of French

Elmhurst College, 1896; Eden Theological Seminary, 1894; Northwestern University, A.M., 1933; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1907—.

The
1933 ELMS

HENRY L. BREITENBACH
Professor of Latin

Elmhurst College, 1896; Eden Theological Seminary, 1899; Instructor, High School, Oconto, Wisconsin, 1903-1906; Northwestern University, 1929-30; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1907—.

CARL F. BAUER, D.D.
Professor of Philosophy

Elmhurst College, 1885; Eden Theological Seminary, 1888; Instructor, Elmhurst College, 1890-1891; Northwestern University, 1929-30; Professor, 1890—.

H. EMIL HANSEN
Professor of Greek

Graduate of Classical Gymnasium (Schleswig, Schleswig-Holstein), 1887; University of Berlin, 1888-89; University of Kiel, 1890-92; Teachers' Seminary of Tondern, 1893; Instructor in Schools of Hamburg, 1894-95; Principal of Private Classical School at Fallersleben, Hannover, 1896-98; University of Iowa, 1903-04; University of Chicago, Summer Quarters: 1922, 1923, 1924; University of Chicago, Winter Quarters: 1922, 1923, 1924; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1917—.

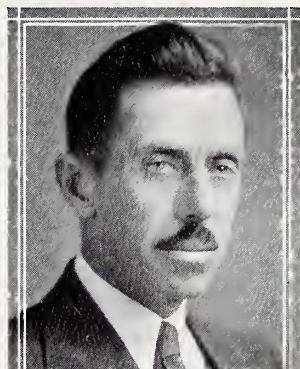

HOMER H. HELMICK, PH.D.
Professor of Chemistry

Defiance College, A.B., 1900; A.M., 1910; University of Chicago, Ph.D., 1918; Principal, Sylvania (Ohio) High School, 1910-11; Professor of Chemistry, Wheaton College, 1911-15; Assistant in Chemistry, University of Chicago, 1915-18; Second Lieutenant, Sanitary Corps, U. S. Army Hospital Laboratories, 1918-20; Research Chemist, Radium Company of Colorado, 1920-21; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1923—.

The
1933 ELMS

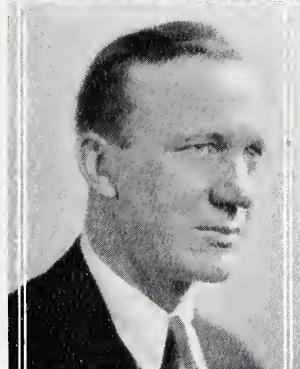

KARL HENNING CARLSON, A.M.
Professor of English

Ohio Wesleyan University, A.B., 1909; Drew Theological Seminary, B.D., 1913; New York University, A.M., 1922; University of Chicago, Summer Quarters, 1920, 1924; Harvard University, Summers, 1925, 1928, 1932; University of Wisconsin, Summer 1926; University of Washington, Summer, 1931; Teacher, Perry Township High School, Lafayette, Indiana, 1920-22; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1923—.

PAUL N. CRUSIUS, A.M.
Professor of History

Harvard, A.B., 1910; A.M., 1916; Columbia University, 1916-1917; Chicago University, Summer Quarters, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1922, 1923, 1924; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1910-1915; Tutor, Horace Mann School, New York City, 1916-17; Professor and Principal of the Academy, Elmhurst College, 1919; Registrar, 1927-1930; Graduate Student, Harvard University, 1930-1932.

ROBERT STANGER, A.M.
Assistant Professor of Religion

Elmhurst College, 1918; Eden Theological Seminary, 1921; Yale Divinity School, 1922, B.D.; Divinity School, University of Chicago, 1924, M.A.; Columbia University (Union Seminary) Summer, 1931; Assistant Professor, Elmhurst College, 1930—.

C. C. ARENDS, B.S., A.M.
Assistant Professor of Speech

B.S., Bradley, 1925; A.M., School of Speech, Northwestern University, 1931; Assistant Professor, Elmhurst College, 1929—.

The
1933 ELMS

LOYAL F. OLLMANN, A.M.

Assistant Professor of Mathematics and Physics

Ripon College, A.B., 1926; University of Wisconsin, A.M., 1927; Professor of Physics, Wentworth Military Academy, 1927-29; Assistant Professor, Elmhurst, 1929—.

SAMUEL G. WINTER, DR. P.H., PH.D.

Professor of Biology

Ohio University, A.B., 1902; A.M., 1903; Dr. P.H., 1916, Lombard College; Ph.D., 1930, University of Goettingen; Professor of Biology, Lombard College and Bacteriologist, Illinois State Department of Health, 1915-30; Pathologist, Base Hospital 11, France, 1918-19; Major, O.R.C., General Medical Laboratory 10, 1929; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1930—.

EARL E. KLEIN, A.M., B.D.

Instructor in Sociology

Elmhurst College, A.B., 1927; Washington University, A.M., 1929; Eden Theological Seminary, B.D., 1930; Tulane University, Summer, 1928; University of Chicago, 1930-31; Assistant in Sociology, Washington University, 1928-29; Instructor, Elmhurst College, 1930—.

GORDON BARTLEY STRONG, PH.D.

Professor of Economics and Business Administration

University of Chicago, Ph.B., 1927; A.M., 1930; Fellow in Philosophy, 1927-28; Ph.D., 1932; Professor, Elmhurst College, 1931—.

The
1933 ELMS

RALPH CURTIS, A.B.
Assistant Coach

Elmhurst College, A.B., 1930; University of Wisconsin, Summer, 1930; Assistant Coach, Elmhurst College, 1930—.

MARION SMITH, B.S.
Instructor in Physical Education

Battle Creek College, 1928; Michigan State Normal College, B.S., 1929; Instructor, Elmhurst College, 1931—.

ERNA R. STECH, A.B.
Librarian

A.B., University of Wisconsin, 1929; Library Certificate, Library School of the University of Wisconsin, 1929; Assistant Librarian, State Teachers College, Winona, Minnesota, 1929-30; Elmhurst College Library, 1930—.

ROBERT G. LEONHARDT
Business Manager

Elmhurst College, 1917; Eden Seminary, 1920; Director of Physical Education, Elmhurst College, 1920-1923; Registrar, Elmhurst College, 1923-1927; Business Manager, Elmhurst College, 1927—.

The
1933 ELMS

ELMER H. TIEDEMANN
Bursar

Elmhurst College, C. P. A. (Illinois); Bursar,
Elmhurst College, 1928—.

ELFRIEDA LANG
Recorder

MRS. L. SCHIRNEKER
Secretary to the President

MRS. ELIZABETH VOIGT
Matron

Imbibers of Learning

The
1933 ELMS

ARTHUR REIMLER
President

MINA TROUT
Secretary-Treasurer

JOHN HOLDEN
Vice-president

Senior Class

THIS YEAR, as last year, there are only three co-eds in the graduating class. One of them again rose to the officer's row. At least they are holding their own.

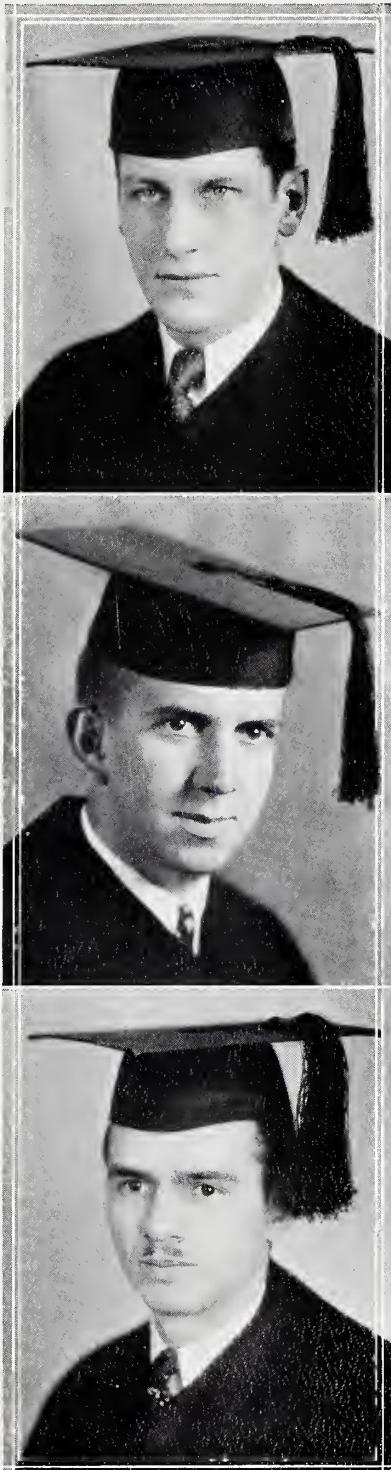

About the best thing this class did was to get Senior jackets that were more attractive than otherwise. That was something!

This class can be proud of one more thing, although it is nothing more than that it is the largest graduating class since the Liberal Arts College days of the school.

As a whole, the Seniors are well represented in athletics, in campus activities, and a good part of the class is far from deficient in scholastic standing. We make no predictions, but old man World should hear from some of these people within the next few decades.

FRED ALLRICH, A.B., History
St. Charles, Missouri

Fritz is the owner of the deepest and drawliest voice on the campus. Besides making himself famous for his authentic bearing as a student captain, or something, in "Alt Heidelberg," he won the post of Chief Coffee Server and fourteenth assistant checker in the Commons. The east wing of South Hall will be a dull place without the lad who broke all records for long-distance arguments upon such weighty subjects as How Far Can a Snail Crawl Up the Edge of a Razor Blade, and How Many L's in Elliott.

CARL BERGES, A.B., Sociology
Burlington, Iowa

Berges and Hunger had one of the best-looking rooms in South Hall. How they always kept it so neat was a mystery to the rest of the lads.

Writing about those two fellows is like describing the Siamese twins. Always together, doing the same kinds of extra-curriculars, they were inseparable pals. With Hunger as his able assistant, Berges was advertising manager for both the Elms and Elm Bark for two years.

PAUL BODE, A.B., History
Plymouth, Nebraska

Bode is a quiet lad, except when somebody piles furniture in the South Hall corridors just as he is about to start pushing his broom around. The only time I ever saw Bode get really angry, though, was the occasion on which he broke six mop handles over a third floor radiator, because it got in his way. At times like that you'd never think that this quiet boy sang baritone in the Glee Club, and was a pillar of Der Deutsche Verein and the Pre-The Club.

The
1933 ELMS

WALTER DAVID, A.B., Sociology Genoa, Ohio

The writer of these blurbs is, like David, from God's Country (Ohio to you) and has to be extremely careful not to wax too expansive when he gets a chance like this. Red says he doesn't think he'll be president of the nation, since Ohio has furnished altogether too many of these already, but will be content with his $20,000 presidentship of David University. Well, maybe so, but for the present here are a few of Red's claims to fame: his bridge, his realism, his aversion to coconuts, his refusal to be ensnared by romance until his Senior year in college, and his consistent high grades.

CHRISTINE DETERS, A.B., Education
Ann Arbor, Michigan

Miss Deters enrolled at Elmhurst as a junior, but in less than two years has succeeded in making her presence felt—plenty, if you were to ask a couple of the boys in the class of 1934. Christine broke into journalism this year, and was for a time editor of the esteemed Bark. (What! another editor?) There is a persistent rumor that Christine is going to crash the gates at Eden Seminary next fall, but I dunno, I dunno.

EDWIN EIBEN, A.B., History Marlin, Texas

Eiben doesn't make much noise, but goes efficiently about his business. It's true that he is apt to catch you in an unguarded moment and talk about the weather, but that's not to be held against any man. For the past year Eiben has been working in an undertaking parlor, where he says he has found out a lot about human nature, chiefly that it doesn't last long.

The
1933 ELMS

RICHARD ELLIOTT, A.B., Sociology
Chicago, Illinois

"Joe" Elliott has been tooting his euphonium up and down the land for several years. What the Glee Club is going to do without Joe and "The Carnival of Venice" is hard to say. Joe's career has been one of the most hectic ones in Elmhurst's history. Between people spelling his name wrong, his worries as Band Director, and no less than two class A love affairs each year, things have kept him hopping. Hop to it, Joe!

GUS GRUENEWALD, A.B., Sociology
St. Louis, Missouri

If we were to set down a list of Gus' extra-curriculars we'd have to publish a separate appendix. My, my, the things that lad has been into during his f—, during his college career. Besides being one of our natty dressers, Gus is noted for his wavy hair and his introduction into the English language of the words "trick" and "jack man". We might add that Gus was one of the best presidents the College Glee Club ever had.

JOHN HOLDEN, B.S., Biology
Chicago, Illinois

This Moon Holden is a versatile fellow; he leaps hurdles with a certain form, plays football with spirit, and smokes a villainous corn cob pipe while pushing the college Juggernaut around the campus. In addition, Moon can hold more b—, pardon, more aces in his hand than any man in South Hall. He was track coach this spring and turned out a good team.

The
1933 ELMS

RALPH HUNGER, A.B., Philosophy
Burlington, Iowa

Hunger and Berges had one of the best-looking rooms in South Hall. How they always kept it so neat was a mystery to the rest of the lads.

As assistant advertising manager on the Elms and Elm Bark, Hunger was a tireless worker. He and Berges had a knack for pulling in ads.

ERWIN KRUEGER, A.B., Sociology
Sheboygan, Wisconsin

"Achtel" finished his courses in February, and is now resting comfortably on his laurels in his native city. "Big Irv" will be remembered (among other things) for his "line". You never knew, and probably never will, whether he was kidding or not. During his last semester, Irv did a little practice teaching, and the story goes that all the school girls, as well as the teachers, fell very hard for him, the big He-Man!

ERDMUTH LIENK, A.B., German
Chicago, Illinois

Miss Lienk is noted chiefly for her broad smile, her enunciation, and her propensity and capacity for novels, especially during lectures. Erda will make a great school teacher, someday, and we wish her a lot of luck. (Maybe she doesn't want to be a school teacher, but we can't help that.)

To a man with the certain "it" quality — Erda

The
1933 ELMS

WILLIAM MELBERG, A.B., History
Buffalo, New York

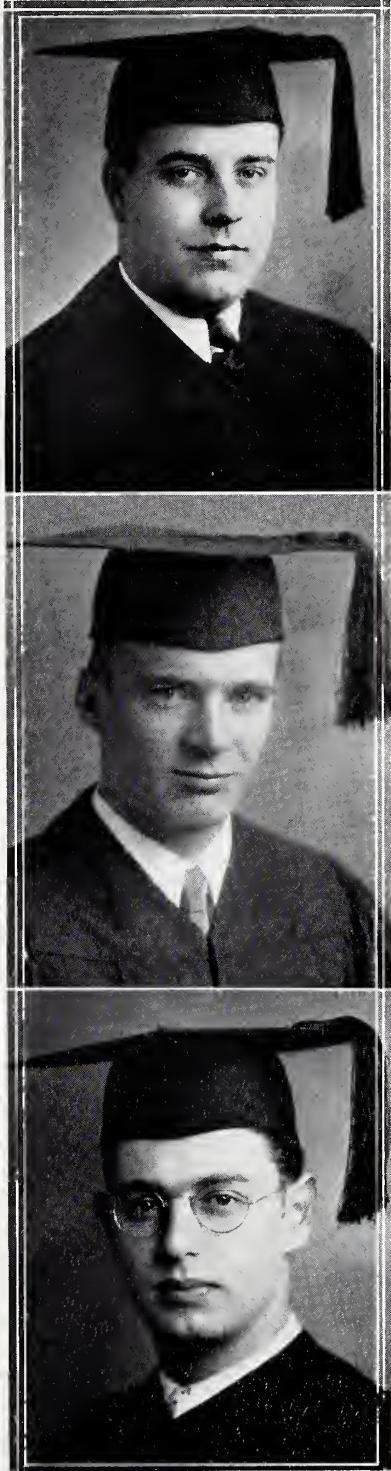

Ever since the Elm Bark elections in April, Bill has been going around with a lost, vacant air. For four years that man was business manager of the Bark, and now the poor fellow has nothing left to do but razz Ted Krohne and laugh at Dr. Bauer's jakes. Bill is going to be a great preacher some day. I heard him once, as he delivered a sermon for the "Y" Gospel Team, and I quit smoking for three days, and went through a whole day's classes without a wink of sleep.

ERNEST NIELSEN, B.S., Chemistry
Elmhurst, Illinois

The only time Nielsen makes any noise is when he is in the laboratory in Old Main. He pulled down such whacking high grades in his first three years, that he decided to take it easy for a while. What a mind! But Bib. Lit. Almost got him down. Some day this fellow will startle the world with a new long-distance chewing gum, or some other boon to mankind.

WALTER PFEIL, A.B., Sociology
Buffalo, New York

Wally is a banjo picker, a sociology bug, a Y. M. C. A. worker, a bridge hound,—and a pretty good fellow, for all of that. He has also found time to play basketball, and catch for the Pirate nine. A most earnest young man, Wally will get ahead—as long as he keeps his banjo near by, and quits reading Eddie Guest.

PAUL RASCHE, A.B., Sociology
St. Louis, Missouri

Here is a man who hung up another world's record. He could crib more cigarettes per hour than any man in his weight class. Rasche yodelled a good baritone in the Glee Club for a couple of years, was a mainstay of the Pre-The Club, and kept a pair of white rats in his room.

ARTHUR REIMLER, A.B., History
Elmhurst, Illinois

When Swede isn't sitting in a classroom, smiling amiably, he is standing behind the counter at Hesse's—smiling amiably. He is easily the most phlegmatic and unruffled lad that ever came out of the academy; even being President of the Seniors didn't disturb him to any extent. He handled that motley crew admirably, although it remains to be seen whether they'll get through Senior Week without flying at each other's throats.

EDWIN RISKE, A.B., History
Independence, Missouri

Riske used to stand beside me in the bass section, and would often tell me when I was flat. (He was usually wrong, but I never told him. I never told him, either, that his radio used to keep me awake nights—that is, not in language that I would use here.)

Ed deserves a lot of credit for getting the Glee Club through a tough year. As business manager during the depression (remember the depression?) he worked hard to get concert tours.

The
1933 ELMS

ELMER SANDER, A.B., German
Evansville, Indiana

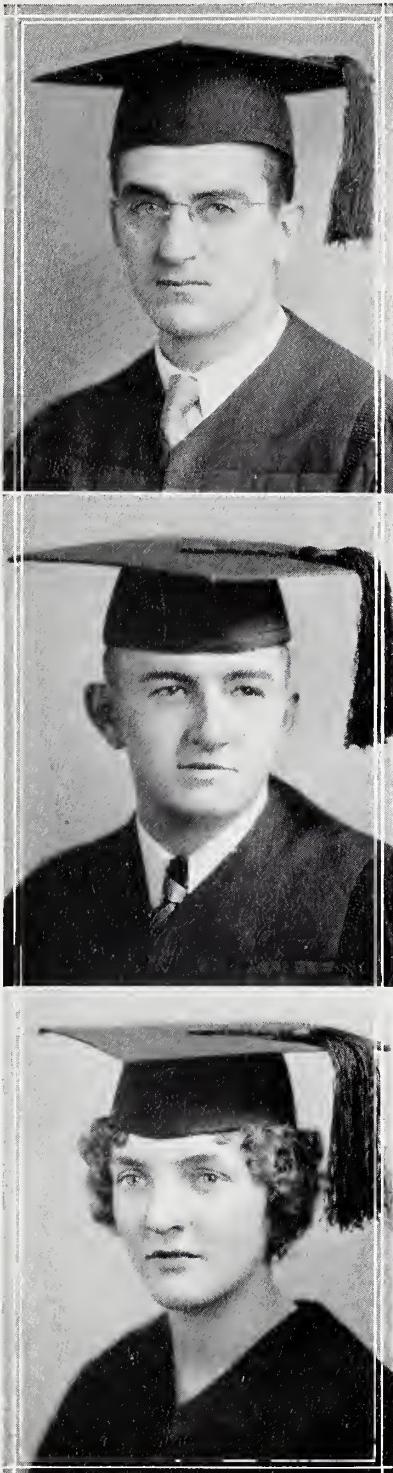

Student Union President, and business manager of the Glee Club for two years,—those are titles testifying to Sander's capacity for work. In addition, he was a lab assistant in Biology, and assistant in the business office. Elmer also pitched for the Pirates, and made the tennis team in his last two years. The campus will miss Sander next year.

IRVIN STEGNER, A.B., History
Billingsville, Missouri

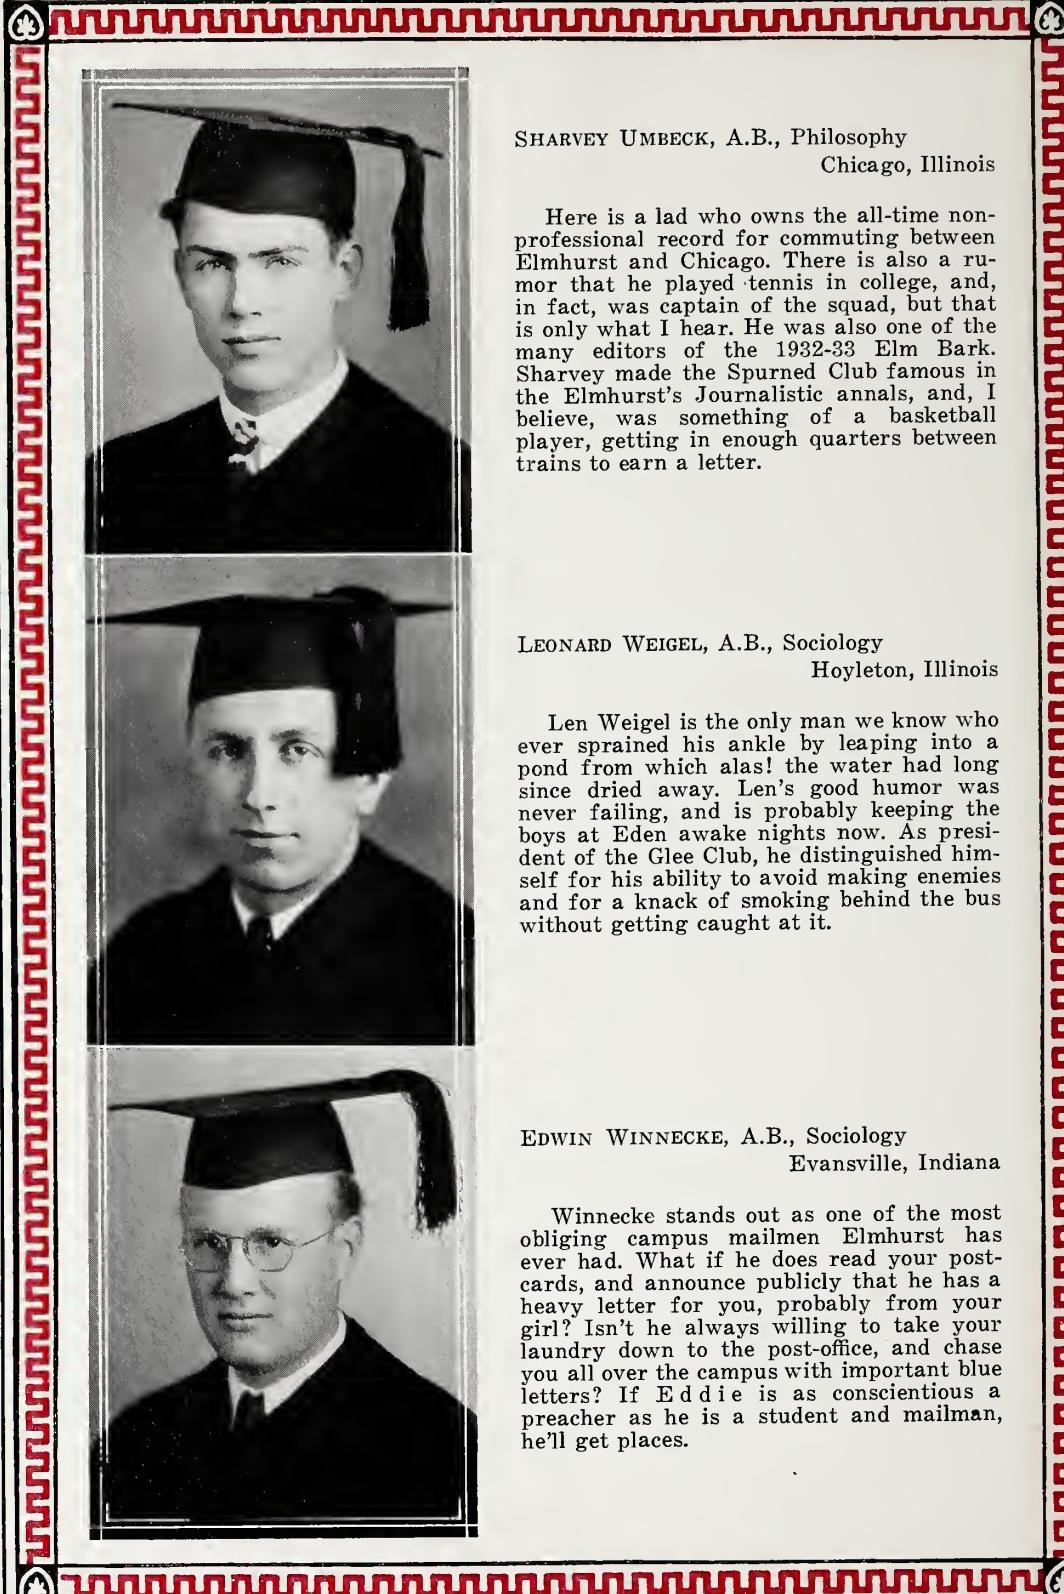

"Pep" is an unobtrusive fellow; no one sees very much of him. His chief claim to fame is his extreme speed on the basketball floor during the intramurals, and his efficiency as ex-officio custodian in Dr. Bauer's classes.

MINA TROUT, A.B., English
Brookfield, Illinois

We had the honor of enjoying Miss Trout's company in French classes for the past couple of years, and want to go on record right now as saying that we never, before or since, heard anyone hand out so many incorrect allusions to English Literature as did Mina. She is vitally interested in dramatics, and during the past year was program chairman of Cues, the new dramatic club.

The
1933 ELMS

SHARVEY UMBECK, A.B., Philosophy
Chicago, Illinois

Here is a lad who owns the all-time non-professional record for commuting between Elmhurst and Chicago. There is also a rumor that he played tennis in college, and, in fact, was captain of the squad, but that is only what I hear. He was also one of the many editors of the 1932-33 Elm Bark. Sharvey made the Spurned Club famous in the Elmhurst's Journalistic annals, and, I believe, was something of a basketball player, getting in enough quarters between trains to earn a letter.

LEONARD WEIGEL, A.B., Sociology
Hoyleton, Illinois

Len Weigel is the only man we know who ever sprained his ankle by leaping into a pond from which alas! the water had long since dried away. Len's good humor was never failing, and is probably keeping the boys at Eden awake nights now. As president of the Glee Club, he distinguished himself for his ability to avoid making enemies and for a knack of smoking behind the bus without getting caught at it.

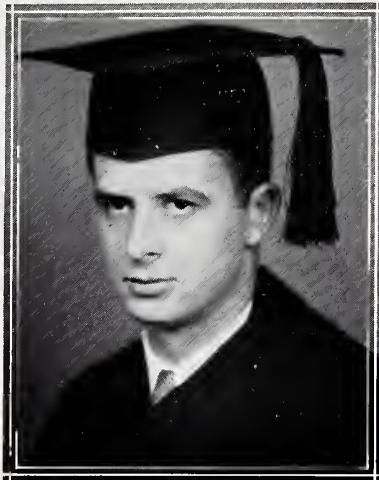

EDWIN WINNECKE, A.B., Sociology
Evansville, Indiana

Winnecke stands out as one of the most obliging campus mailmen Elmhurst has ever had. What if he does read your post-cards, and announce publicly that he has a heavy letter for you, probably from your girl? Isn't he always willing to take your laundry down to the post-office, and chase you all over the campus with important blue letters? If Eddie is as conscientious a preacher as he is a student and mailman, he'll get places.

The
1933 ELMS

MILTON ZIELINSKI, A.B., History
Elkhart Lake, Wisconsin

Milt, alias Zulu, alias Cito, alias German Shark, is one of those colorful lads. The only time I ever saw Milt anxious or hurried was one night early in spring when he went for a stroll about midnight and—but any of the boys will tell you the rest. Besides belting the old apple around the diamond for a pretty fair average, and diddling a basketball up and down the gym floor for a couple of seasons, Zulu holds a record of some kind for uninterrupted unostentatious class sleeping.

HAROLD BLOOHM, A.B., History

Beaver Dam, Wisconsin

Bloohm is the man who didn't miss a football game in twelve years of playing on Elmhurst's teams. All right, four, then. In his last game last fall, Capt. Hal played the last half minus his jawbone, right ear, and engagement ring, and did he ever frighten the opposition! After Bloohm gets his diploma he will have only two more objectives to reach—to stop putting on weight, and to keep out of reform school.

HUGO BAUER, A.B., German

Elmhurst, Illinois

For a lad whose pa is a campus professor, Bauer is "right there." Besides his habit of strolling all over the landscape with an armful of—books (ha, fooled you!) he is noted for his swell characterization of Karl Heinrich in "Alt Heidelberg."

ELMER F. ANSLEY, A.B., Sociology

Elmhurst, Illinois

This is the chap the Elm Bark printers used to call "Mr. Fansley", from his signature. Elmer is one of those dynamos who gets himself a wife in the middle of his college career, finds time to edit the Elm Bark, go out for tennis, interest himself in most everything, maintain a whale of a scholastic average, and still manages to be very much of a human being and hang on to a swell sense of humor. If, as, and when Elmer goes out to preach, sterling common sense will be his keynote.

CARL KERBER, A.B., Economics

Elgin, Illinois

For a number of years Cully has been distinguishing himself on the gridiron. One of the most valuable players in the Little Nineteen, he was missed a lot in the lineup last fall. However, as assistant to Coach Curtis during the past season, he carried on his good work. Although Kerb finished his scholastic work in February, he still hangs around. His amiable pan is still seen around the campus at frequent intervals. We'll wager he wants to keep reminding the faculty that he has a diploma coming about June 9.

The 1933 ELMS

JAMES DETUERK
President

MARIAN STRINGER
Secretary

JOHN DETUERK
Vice-president

FRANCES FRIEDMAN
Treasurer

RALPH REBMAN
Sgt.-at-Arms

Junior Class

HERE IS the class that brought co-eds to Elmhurst. That fact in itself is sufficient to insure immortal glory for the class of 1934.

Even as Freshmen the members of the present Junior Class showed their spirit by putting up such a fight against the upper-classmen and their rules that the rules were revised in conformity with the dictates of the victorious frosh.

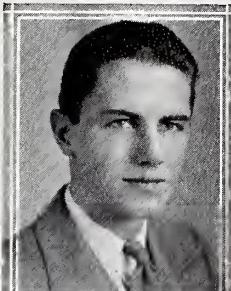

To climax a brilliant three years, the Juniors put on a Prom such as was never before seen or heard of.

Much could be said about the fine qualities of this class, but we must be fair, and leave space for other things, which, though not nearly so interesting, deserve some consideration, if for no other reason than that they are in existence.

The
1933 ELMS

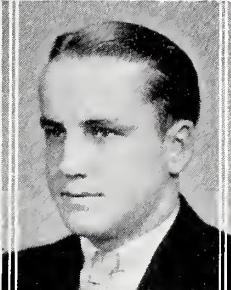

CHARLES BAUMRUCKER
River Forest, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Band 1, 2, 3
Cheerleader 2, 3
French Club
President 3
Student Union 3

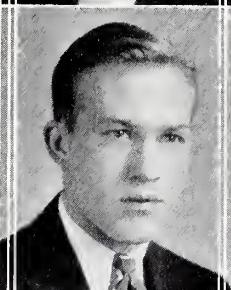

ALBERT BEHLE, Ferguson, Missouri

Baseball 1, 2, 3
Captain 3
Football 2, 3

WILBERT BIASCH
St. Louis, Missouri
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 1
Baseball 1, 2

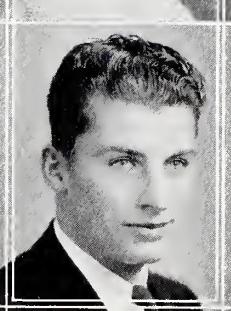

MILDRED CLARK, Elmhurst, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Secretary 1, 2
Sextette 2, 3
President 3
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 1, 2, 3
Campus Choir 3

JAMES DETUERK
Erie, Pennsylvania
Class President 3
Football 2, 3
Track 3

The
1933 ELMS

JOHN DETUERK

Erie, Pennsylvania

Football 2, 3
Track 2, 3
Student Union 2, 3
Class Vice-president 3

SIEGFRIED DIETRICH

Eyota, Minnesota

Oriental Club 1, 2, 3
President 2
Secretary 3
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 2
"Alt Heidelberg" 2

ARMIN DREUSICKE

Hinsdale, Illinois

Football 2, 3
Track 1, 2, 3
Captain 2, 3
Elms 2, 3
Student Union 3

FRANCES FRIEDMAN

Elmhurst, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Sextette 2, 3
Vice-President 3
Campus Choir 2, 3
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 3

RICHARD GERFEN, Breese, Illinois

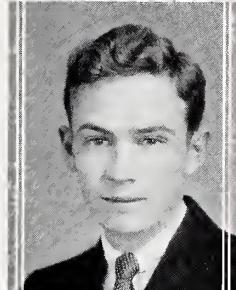

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 2
Tennis 1, 2, 3
Captain 3
"Alt Heidelberg" 2

The
1933 ELMS

WILLIAM HAUDE, Elmhurst, Illinois
Elms 3
Cues 3

ELMER HELLING, Bland, Missouri
Basketball 3

WALTER HOTZ, Hoytton, Illinois
Glee Club 1
Class Treasurer 2
Band 1, 2, 3
Track Manager 2

KARL JUERGENS, Cleveland, Ohio
Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Elm Bark 1, 2, 3
Elms 2, 3
Class President 2
"Outward Bound" 1
"Alt Heidelberg" 2
Cues
Secretary-Treasurer 3
French Club 3

HAROLD KINGON, Elmhurst, Illinois
Oriental Club

The
1933 ELMS

MARTHA KLEIN, Eitzen, Minnesota

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Campus Choir 2, 3
Elm Bark 2
"Alt Heidelberg" 2
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 1, 2, 3

RALPH KUETHER

Merrill, Wisconsin

Glee Club 2
Band 2
Elms 2, 3
Advertising Manager 3
Elm Bark 2, 3
Advertising Manager 3
Oriental Club 2, 3
Vice-president 3
"Alt Heidelberg" 2
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 3
Pre-theological Club 3

PAUL MEYER, Chicago, Illinois

Class President 1
Student Union 2, 3
"Outward Bound" 1
"To the Ladies" 2
"Alt Heidelberg" 2
Track 1, 2
Glee Club 1
Quartette
Cues
President 3

MELVIN MILLER, Holland, Indiana

Band 1
Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Secretary-Treasurer 2
President 3

RALPH REBMAN

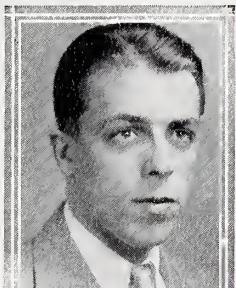

Buffalo, New York
Class Sergeant-at-Arms 3

The
1933 ELMS

HEINRICH REST

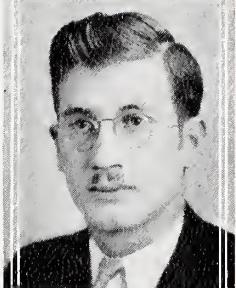

Marshalltown, Iowa

Glee Club 3
Campus Choir 3

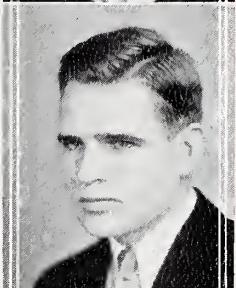

HARRY RING, Holland, Indiana

Band 1, 2, 3
Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Elm Bark 2, 3
Orchestra 2

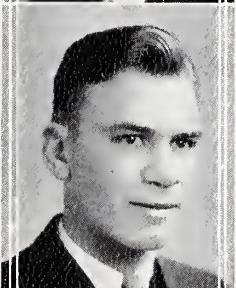

ELVER SCHROEDER, Breese, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2, 3
Vice-president 2
Campus Choir 2
Elm Bark 2
Elms 2, 3
Editor 3
Student Union 2
"Alt Heidelberg" 2
Track 3

CARL SCHULTZ

Westphalia, Indiana

FRED SHEARMIRE

McKittrick, Missouri

Oriental Club 1, 2
Pre-theological Club 2
Vice-president 2
Glee Club 1

The
1933 ELMS

	EMIL STEINMANN, Carlyle, Illinois Band 1, 2, 3 Secretary-Treasurer 2 Oriental Club 1, 2, 3 Secretary-Treasurer 2, 3 Student Union 3
	ALICE STONE, Chicago, Illinois Elm Bark 1, 2 Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2, 3 President 3
	MARIAN STRINGER Elmhurst, Illinois "Dulcy" 2 "To the Ladies" 2 Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2, 3 Secretary 3 Class Secretary 3
	THEODORE VANDYCK, Waco, Texas Glee Club 1, 2, 3 Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 1, 2, 3 President 3 German Club 1, 2 Elms 2, 3
	WERNER WEGENER Holstein, Missouri Baseball 2, 3 "Alt Heidelberg" 2

The 1933 ELMS

HERBERT WINTERMEYER
Hartsburg, Missouri

Glee Club 1
Band 1, 2, 3
Elm Bark 1
German Club 1, 2
Football 3
Pre-theological Club
Treasurer 3

ORA WINTERMEYER
Hartsburg, Missouri

Glee Club 1
Band 1, 2, 3
Elm Bark 2, 3
German Club 1, 2
Football 3
Student Union 3

ROY GIESELMAN
President

JESSIE CHAPMAN
Vice-president

BARBARA STRAUB
Marshall

WILLIAM BESSMER
Treasurer

Sophomore Class

No DOUBT the "Club Sophomore" will live long in the memories of Elmhurst students. There are some ingenious people among the members of this class, to which fact the aforementioned affair testifies.

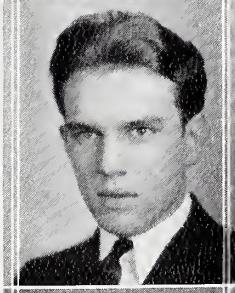

It was one of the Sophomore teams that ran off with all the laurels in the intra-mural games. In other aspects of campus life the Sophomores are unusually well represented. If they keep on the way they have started, they promise to become one of the most outstanding classes in the history of the school.

The
1933 ELMS

RUDOLPH ALLRICH
St. Charles, Missouri
Elms 2

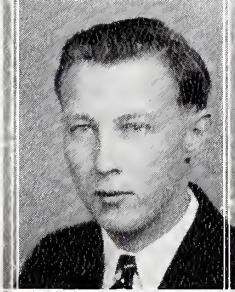

ROY ANDERSON, Waterloo, Illinois

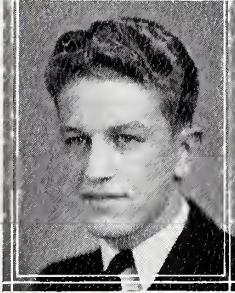

HARRIET BELL, Elmhurst, Illinois

WILLIAM BESSMER
Independence, Missouri
Student Union 2
Class Treasurer 2

PAUL BLOESCH, Dyer, Indiana

The
1933 ELMS

SHIRLEY BOLIN, Elmhurst, Illinois
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2

EDWARD BOWERS, LaPorte, Indiana
Elms 2

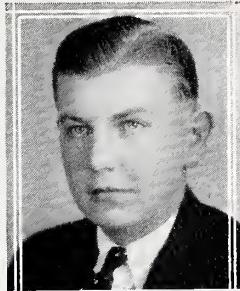

LUCILLE BUNCH, Elmhurst, Illinois
Elms, Circulation Manager 2

JESSIE CHAPMAN
Maywood, Illinois
Elms, Business Manager 2
Elm Bark 1, 2
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2
Class Secretary-Treasurer 1
Class Vice-president 2

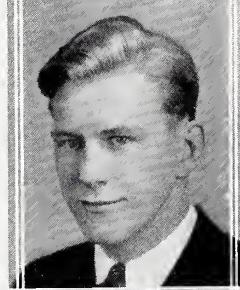

WALLACE DRAWERT
Chicago, Illinois

The
1933 ELMS

EDWARD DREWS, Danville, Illinois
Glee Club 1, 2

ROY EILERS, Pana, Illinois
Football 1, 2
Basketball 2

GERTRUDE FISCHER
Burksville, Illinois
Glee Club 1, 2
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2
Cues 2

ROY GIESELMANN
St. Louis, Missouri
Glee Club 1, 2
Quartette 2
Class President 2
Campus Choir 2
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 2

BONEZ GRIMES
Okmulgee, Oklahoma
Cues 2

The
1933 ELMS

CARL HAAG, Cleveland, Ohio

Tennis 1, 2
Elm Bark 2

EDWIN HOEFER, Warsaw, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2
Cross-country 2
Pre-theological Club
Secretary 2

LUELLA JAMESON

Lombard, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2
Business Manager 2
Campus Choir 2
Cues 2
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2

PAUL KAISER, Freeport, Illinois

Glee Club 1
Y. M. C. A. Cabinet 1, 2
Cues 2
Track 2

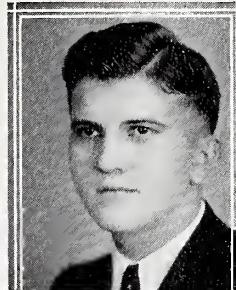

LOUIS KLICK, St. Louis, Missouri

Elms 1

The
1933 ELMS

CARL KROENLEIN, Danville, Illinois

Elm Bark 2
Glee Club 1, 2

FRANK KROLL, Ft. Madison, Iowa

Football 1, 2
Glee Club 1, 2
Quartette 1, 2
Secretary-Treasurer 2

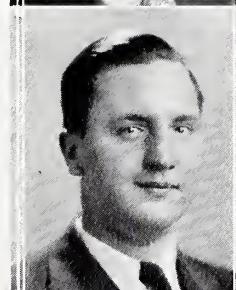

FREDERIC MADSEN, Chicago, Illinois

CLARENCE NAUMAN

Chicago, Illinois

Glee Club 1, 2
Band 1, 2

HERMAN ORTWEIN, Massillon, Ohio

Elm Bark 2
Elms 2

The
1933 ELMS

FRED REST, Marshalltown, Iowa
Football 2

ALVIN SIEMSEN, Peotone, Illinois
Glee Club 1, 2
Cues 2

HERBERT STAHLHUT
Edwardsville, Illinois

JOHN STEVE, Buffalo, New York
Football 2

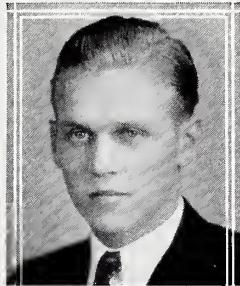

BARBARA STRAUB
Buffalo, New York
Class Marshall 2
Y. W. C. A. Cabinet 2

The
1933 ELMS

CHESTER UTHLAUT

Treloar, Missouri

Basketball 1, 2
Baseball 1, 2

ESTHER WEBER, Chillicothe, Ohio

Glee Club 2

HERMAN WEBER

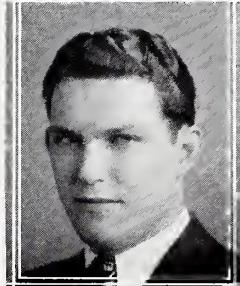

Mishawaka, Indiana

Glee Club 1, 2

JOHN WEGMAN, Elgin, Illinois

Glee Club 1
Track 2

The
1933 ELMS

VERNON HOECKER
President

RUTH HEYL
Sec.-Treas.

RAY CHAPLEAU
Vice-president

Freshman Class

WHEN DID a Freshman Class ever give a party like the "Freshman Frolic"? You all know the answer. Very few affairs in the history of the school equal it.

And talk about your intellectuals! Here was a class so bright that it was not necessary to have an English 0 class for it.

These Freshmen were distinguished by being brought to trial before the first Kangaroo Court. At this court the miscreants were tried, sentenced, and punished with a minimum of red-tape. If past achievements are any indication, this class will dope out some original method for making Freshmen toe the mark next year.

The
1933 ELMS

Doris Bay, Elmhurst, Illinois

Leona Buenger, Oak Park, Illinois

Betty Cenic, Elmhurst, Illinois

Edwin Diehl, Lenzburg, Illinois

Dorothy Hagge, Lombard, Illinois

Ruth Hagstrom, Chicago, Illinois

Ruth Heyl, Waterloo, Illinois

The
1933 ELMS

Vernon Hoecker, Bellevue, Kentucky

Phoebe Johnson, Elmhurst, Illinois

Robert Johnson, Oak Park, Illinois

Helen Kaiser, Freeport, Illinois

Robert Kaiser, Rochester, New York

Alfred Kroencke, Hinsdale, Illinois

Theodore Krohne, Buffalo, New York

The
1933 ELMS

Ernest Melchert, Black Creek, Wisconsin

Armin Munz, Hebron, North Dakota

Laura Press, St. Louis, Missouri

Roland Quest, St. Louis, Missouri

Theodore Rasche, St. Louis, Mo.

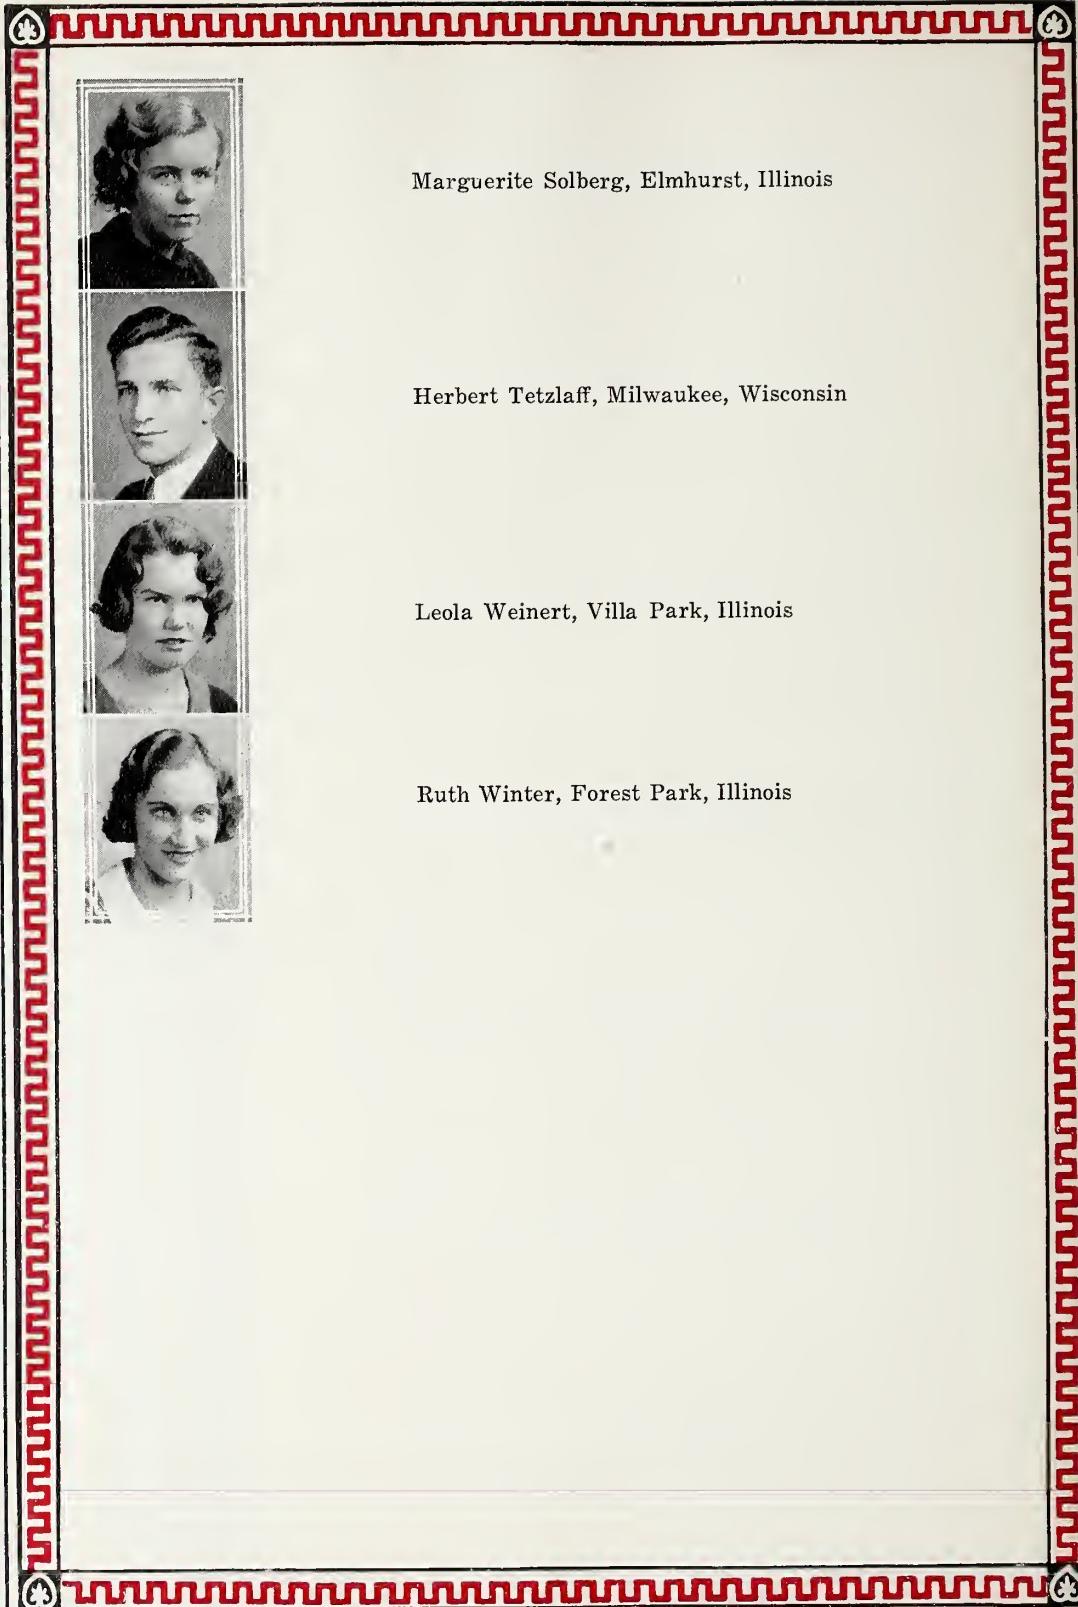

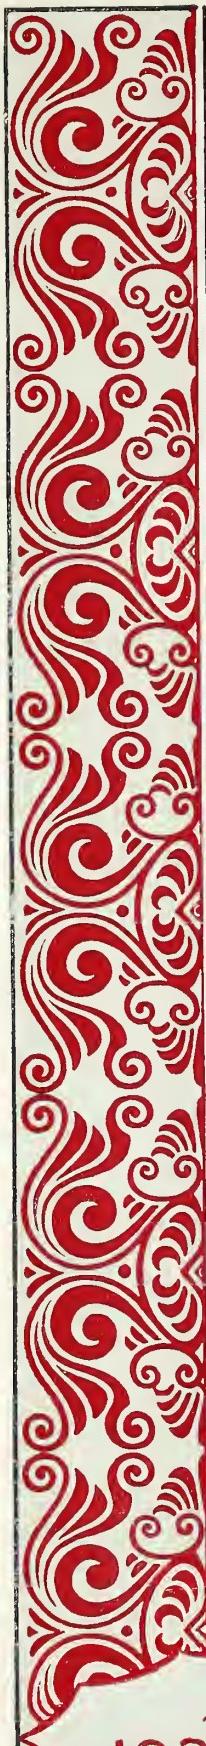

Margaret Riley, Oak Park, Illinois

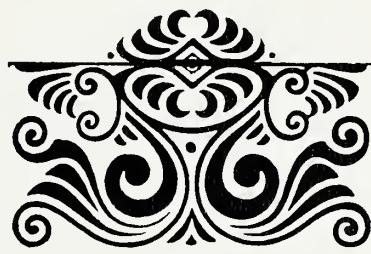

Betty Roefer, Elmhurst, Illinois

The
1933 ELMS

Results of Attacks of Poetic Horrors

The
1933 ELMS

Our Poetry Section and Why

LAST FALL we made the announcement that the Elms would conduct a poetry contest, the best poems submitted to be published in the annual.

We had heard that there was an abundance of prolific poets upon the campus, but we never expected anything like the deluge with which we were inundated. A grand total of 6,829,322 and one limerick were submitted.

The task of going through all these—well, poems, was too great even to contemplate. We decided to submit them to trial by fire. Accordingly "Moon" obligingly worked three days and three nights hauling the 6,892,322 poems and one limerick over to the incinerator. A match was then carefully applied to this accumulation of rhapsodic blurbs, and the fire thus started was allowed to burn for two days.

At the end of that time we extinguished the fire, pulled out those poems which were still legible, and here they are on the following pages, survivors of the trial by fire. If they survive you, they must be pretty good, but if you survive them, they must be better.

Prize-winning Poem

SONNET

What is this driving thing I want to say:
I've not thought up a clever sophistry.
No cause nor social problem urges me.
Into my ear no lyric sings its way—
It's just an emptiness I've felt today,
Or some glad fulness—somehow, that may be.
I know:—it's like a patterned filigree
Of empty spaces and of rich inlay,
Yet twisted in an exquisite design:
This gap marks some vague aching, some regret;
This out-flung curve, a spurt of restlessness;
And upward looks are spirals that intertwine;
A broken place; this line—two curves that met—
Nothing to say—but I lived today, I guess.

Elizabeth Snell

The 1933 ELMS

THE CALL

With lingering steps we leave thy halls,
For sad is the time of farewell;
But the call of the spirit that none can resist
Sounds forth like the Evening Bell.

The call of the fickle battle of life,
The desire to know our fate,
The chance in a million to win the prize
Enchantingly calls, and we cannot wait.

And some shall taste of the sweets of life,
And some shall receive of its highest gain,
And some will conquer the storm and woe
And some will sink under toil and pain.

But the pain and the pleasure that is ahead
Sounds not in our eager ears,
And the call to the warfare sweetly blends,
With memories of happy years.

Clarence E. Naumann.

THROUGH WEARY AGES ALL HAVE SOUGHT

Through weary ages all have sought
A gem they could not find.
The climb is rough, the hold hard fought,
The goal, the light of joy.

Clarence E. Naumann

DESTINY

Just a wee little smile you gave me
As our glances chanced to meet—
It hovered lightly in your eyes,
And its unspoken words were sweet.

Just a casual glance in passing—
Was it destiny that you smiled?
It caused my heart to madly leap,
And the blood in my veins run wild.

Two strangers among the milling crowd,
Yet my heart its affinity knew;
And 'though you went upon your way,
Someday—again I shall find you.

L. C.

The
1933 ELMS

A PRAYER FOR THE STUDENT

Now the green campus which has rested lonely
As fallow ground throughout the summer days
Welcomes the swift, returning feet, but only
Gives her rare smile to those who love her ways.
To those who understand her she will tell
The dear traditions of her ivied walls,
Where friendships made beneath her chapel bell
Are timeless, lasting as her noble halls.
O Thou Great Teacher, give each life direction,
Show aimless ones the path which they should tread,
As if some, far from home, need thy protection,
Shield from harm each thoughtless, erring head.
Show them the answer to the things they ask;
Be with them as they bend above each task!

William Melberg

The
1933 ELMS

TO A SMILE

When fears and troubrous thoughts oppress me
And all the world is bleak and gray
Because hard times beset my way,
How suddenly my sorrows flee
And vanish when her smile I see.
I'll swear it is a lovely day,
In truth, the merry month of May.
A radiant glory, an enchantress' spell she Weaves and spreads on me. Her smile
So bonny, blithe and gay, it warms
The very cockles of my heart to bask
Within its rays and be enthroned a while.
To revel in the beauty of its charms
No greater wealth could e'er I ask.

Phoebe Johnson

The 1933 ELMS

OCTOBER

Drowsily the lisping river trysts
With rhythmic memories;
Willowy fingers of silver smoke
Weave through the trees,
Tangling the tired boughs in tattered mists.
Faintly the yellowing woodlands crinkle beneath
The first frail footfalls of frost;
And the far hushed hills, half-lost
In blue forgetfulness, await,
Apprehensive, inarticulate,
The stampeding of the long-horned winds.

R. G.

TO M. S.

Out of fragments
    Youth lets fall,
Shape a cup
    To hold life's gall.
Love will strip you naked to burn in the sand.
I shall be waiting eagerly while you speak,
To offer you styptic laughter for all life's scratches.

R. G.

The
1933 ELMS

EXALTATION AND DEPRESSION

There is a growing joy within my heart.
Daylight softly drips into the west,
And dusky, misty twilight takes its place.
Slowly that dark horizon will become one
With the darkening sky. Then earth
And sky meet and become one, become One!
There is no more infinity! There is nothing more Beyond my reach. Night has come and Made earth sky, sky earth; all is One.
But then the stars, the little twinkling stars
Appear, reminding me that the sky is still
As far away as ever, and I am here on Earth, and there is no more cause for joy.

L. G.

The 1933 ELMS

TO .....

How many times have lovers said
That their romance was something new;
That their two hearts would never dread
A changing of their points of view.

How fondly do these lovers live
In dreams of lasting happiness
Swearing that each to each will give
The brimming cup of love, no less.

Poor, unreasoning, happy fools,
Happy, that is, until the day
When passion's heated saber cools,
Leaving a lump of steel, cold, gray,

Within the heart that once so burned.
But soon the steel begins to rust;
The heart forgets for what it yearned,
New-tempered by the corroded crust.

B. D.

The
1933 ELMS

Life-blood of the Campus

The
1933 ELMS

The First Lady

At the suggestion of Dr. Strong, the Elms faculty advisor, the staff this year decided to conduct a Representative Student Contest. Accordingly, entry blanks were sent out, and the votes began to pour in. However, due to a slight misunderstanding on the part of the student body, there was a tie vote between about 200 candidates, and a judging committee had to be called in. Greta Garbo, Harold Bell Wright, Schnozzle Durante, and Bertrand Russell, the committee, finally decided upon the two people whose pictures adorn this page and the one opposite.

Miss Alice Stone, a Junior, was chosen as the Representative Woman Student of Elmhurst College. Miss Stone has been President of the Y. W. C. A., and has contributed much to the welfare of that organization. Her winning personality has made her many friends, and her scholastic average is high, placing her consistently on the Honor Student list. She has done especially brilliant work in Chemistry and Education. As a leader, as a student, and as a friend, Miss Stone, in the opinion of the staff, merits to the full the honor which has been accorded her.

The 1933 ELMS

The People's Choice

Harold Bloohm, a senior, of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, received the unanimous vote of the Judging Committee (except Schnozzle Durante, who didn't count anyway) for Elmhurst's Representative Man.

Bloohm has been a consistent leader in all branches of student activity. His brilliant career in football is so well known that little need be said about it here. As captain, in his last season, he contributed much more to the morale and spirit of his team than is usually the case in college football.

Contrary to a well-known tendency, among athletes, Hal always turned in good grades at Elmhurst. His especial interest was in Education; the Ideal School project which he and several others used to talk about in bull sessions was more than idle fancy.

As South Hall proctor, Bloohm made House meetings amount to something, and in other student concerns he was always vitally interested. His good humor and generosity will not soon be forgotten on the campus. Elmhurst will miss Hal Bloohm next year.

The
1933 ELMS

ELMER SANDER
President

ALICE STONE
Vice-president of Women

JOHN DETUERK
Vice-president of Men

MILDRED CLARK
Secretary-Treasurer

Student Union

Under the leadership of Elmer Sander, the Student Union had a successful year, again proving that an organization of its kind can be a little more than just a group of titles. In addition to cooperating with the administration in various student problems, the Union threw a free dance during Homecoming. Just about everybody turned out for this event (naturally) and despite the fact that each couple was restricted to about one square foot of dancing space, all concerned had a grand time.

The Union is sponsoring yet another dance, to be held May 27, and if the past performance of the Union is any criterion, this hop should be a good one. At present the new Union (elections were held in April) is in the midst of a violent controversy. One faction holds that Wayne King should furnish the music for the May dance, playing nothing but "The Waltz You Saved For Me", while the other faction is holding out for Paul Whiteman and Duke Ellington combined, their idea being that if there isn't room for the dancers, they can use the Elks Hall and the back room of Wilde's Smoke Shop, and hear the music by remote control. We trust the Union will iron out their little difficulty in time. (They'll probably compromise and hire Professor Ollman's radio).

One of the Union projects is the upkeep of the Co-op store. This kennel of iniquity dispensed more ice cream, cigarettes, thumb tacks for Ballyhoo clippings, and scandal this year than ever before. If they install cuspidors and a brass rail next year, it will be almost as popular a spot as the third bench to the left in Wilder Park.

The
1933 ELMS

Top row: John Holden, Chairman of Building and Grounds Committee; Armin Dreusicke, Chairman of Athletic Committee; Charles Baumrucker, Chairman of Social Committee; Paul Meyer, Chairman of Publications Committee.

Bottom row: Ora Wintermeyer, Chairman of Dining Hall Committee; Emil Steinman, Chairman of Employment Committee; William Bessmer, Chairman of Chapel Committee; Walter David, Chairman of Organizations Committee.

The
1933 ELMS

Young Men's Christian Association

The Y, like many another organization, was hard hit by the depression this year. President Van Dyck and his aides were kept humping to keep things going. Many's the time Van used to come to me with tears in his eyes and say, "If you don't come across with that ten cents you pledged to the Y, I'll sue you!"

One of the many things the Y accomplished, and didn't get much credit for, probably, was the series of faculty get-togethers. Here students could establish their "drags", gobble free eats, and pretend they were civilized for a little while.

The Y room, long a favorite place to hang out and play checkers in during chapel time, is a source of constant delight and exasperation to the cabinet members. I remember a certain peanut vending machine which got itself emptied in a terrible hurry. Also, the life of a ping-pong ball is an extremely short one, according to the Y records.

Joking aside, the Y. M. C. A. fills a great need in a small college like Elmhurst. It affords a wonderful opportunity for student cooperation and social contact. Speaking of contacts, President-elect Bessmer wishes to state that if the parties who contacted the November, 1927, issue of College Humour, three checker counters, and the ping-pong table will return same, no questions will be asked, and all will be forgiven.

The 1933 ELMS

Top row: Theodore Van Dyck, President; Paul Bode, Vice-president; Paul Kaiser, Secretary; Ora Wintermeyer, Treasurer.

Second row: William Bessmer, House Chairman; Roy Gieselmann, Deputations Chairman; Ralph Kuether, Forum Chairman; Robert Stanger, Faculty Adviser.

Other Officers: William Walch, Social Chairman, Charles Paape.

The
1933 ELMS

Young Women's Christian Association

Where would the Y. W. C. A. be without the co-eds? Certainly no self-respecting male student would set himself up to be eligible for Y. W. C. A.-ship. It is the co-eds, therefore, that we must thank for bringing this organization to our campus. And now that they have brought it, what are they doing with it? For one thing, they have a rather attractive "Y" room which can be used for anything from a Wednesday afternoon sociable gathering to a Friday evening lecture by Dr. Bauer on Kant's categorical imperative.

Shortly before Christmas all the girls got together and made some cute little dolls. Then they threw a small party for some wee, tiny tots and gave the dolls to the youthful guests. Everybody was happy. And happiness, dear friend, is the spirit of the Y. W. C. A. Happiness and good cheer! Build your house firm upon that rock, and avoid the shifting sands of sorrow and gloom.

The 1933 ELMS

Top row: Alice Stone, President; Mildred Clark, Vice-president; Marian Stringer, Secretary.

Second row: Luella Jameson, Treasurer; Martha Klein, Program Chairman; Barbara Straub, Social Chairman; Jessie Chapman, Ways and Means.

Bottom row: Gertrude Fischer, Religious Life; Shirley Bolin, Publicity; Frances Friedman, Membership; Erna Stech, Faculty Advisor.

Other officers: Gerda Mohri, House Chairman; Carol Bauersfeld, Service Chairman.

The 1933 ELMS

SHARVEY UMBECK
Editor

CHRISTINE DETERS
Managing Editor

WILLIAM MELBERG
Business Manager

The Elm Bark

The Elm Bark accomplished a feat this year that is generally regarded as stupendous. For the first time in ages it pulled out of the red at the end of the fiscal year. That such a thing was possible in spite of a "depression" year, was largely due to the efforts of Bill Melberg, the guiding economic genius of the Bark.

This year saw the advent of columnists with a vengeance. The "Slippery Elm" and "Question Box" made O. O. McIntyre, Winchell, et al, look like a lot of bedtime story writers.

Prospects for next year, according to Herman Ortwein, the new editor, are bright. Several changes in policy and makeup are being instituted, and the Bark for 1933-34 should outstrip all others in interest and vitality.

The
1933 ELMS

Top row: Karl Juergens, Literary Editor; Richard Elliott, Sports Editor; Jessie Chapman, Exchange Editor; Ralph Kuether, Advertising Manager; Carl Kroenlein, Assistant Circulation Manager.

Second row: Karl H. Carlson, Faculty Advisor; Assistants: Herman Ortwein, Carl Haag, William Bessmer, Harry Ring.

Third row: Armin Munz, Phoebe Johnson, Theodore Krohne, Betty Cenic, Ernest Melchert.

Circulation Manager, Verne Warner.

The
1933 ELMS

ELVER SCHROEDER
Editor

JESSIE CHAPMAN
Business Mgr.

RALPH KUETHER
Advertising Mgr.

LUCILLE BUNCH
Circulation Mgr.

The 1933 Elms

It is the aim of every Elms staff to publish an annual better than any preceding publication. We modestly hope that we of the 1933 Elms have realized that aim.

We may say, with some degree of confidence in the truth of the statement, that never before has a more colorful border or more attractive cover glorified an Elms. For these two qualities we are almost wholly indebted to Dr. Strong, our faculty advisor, who, in addition to suggesting the three color scheme, made it possible for us to have it and still remain within our budget.

We were financially aided this year by having an involuntary subscription. For this reason we were enabled to reduce our cut prices. The depression, however, has played havoc with the advertising department, with the result that we shall be unable this year to subscribe to the funds for an institution for homeless white mice.

The
1933 ELMS

Top row: T. Van Dyck, Assistant Editor; K. Juergens, Literary Editor; Armin Dreusicke, Sports Editor; E. Bowers, Art Editor.

Second row: Assistants: Herman Ortwein, Betty Roefer, William Haude, Charles Baumrucker.

Third row: R. Allrich, F. Allrich, Vernon Hoecker, Dr. Gordon E. Strong, Faculty Advisor.

Other Assistants: Charles Doty, Fred Denbeaux, Ellsworth Kneeland, Bruce Kester, Henry Duhan.

The 1933 ELMS

MELVIN MUELLER
President

ELMER SANDER
Business Manager

FRANK KROLL
Secretary-Treasurer

WILLIAM WALCH
Vice-president

Men's Glee Club

Here we have the most peripatetic organization on the campus (when it's on it). Insidious rumours are abroad to the effect that the more peripatetic it is, the better the stay-at-homes like it.

Conducted by that crooning half-back, John L. Rezatto, this group of tonsil strainers has not covered the usual yearly 50,000 miles, but it expects to make up for lost distance on a post-season tour that will take them into the most intimate parts of Tibet. My error! They're not going any farther than New York, but even that is a trip not to be violently exhaled at.

As we have intimated before, John L. conducts this group. The accompaniment is usually hammered out by the Old Maestro, Waldemar B. Hille, but our genial pastor and head of the School of Music, the Reverend Karl M. Chworowsky, has doubled for him on several occasions. Richard Elliott, alias Joe, goes along with his big brass horn that has two holes where the noise comes out, and blasts out the Merchant of Naples, or some such thing. And Glenn Most is right on the job, showing the boys how to drink a glass of water and sing "ah-ay-ee-oh-ah" at the same time.

More or less seriously speaking, the boys in the Glee Club sing well under an able conductor, and they have a lot of fun on their tours.

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Winnecke, Gerfen, Rasche, Kroll, Gieselmann, Sander, Rest, Racherbaumer, Maronn, Eiben.

Second row: Williams, Bode, Hoecker, Van Dyck, Kroenlein, Baumrucker, Schoenrock, Elliott, Weber, Meiller.

Top row: Siemsen, Drews, Ring, Stahlhut, Melchert, Walch, Johnson, Tetzlaff, Hoefer, Schroeder, Miller.

First Tenors:

Gerfen
Gieselmann
Siemsen
Stahlhut
Ring
Winnecke

Second Tenors

Elliott
Kroenlein
Miller
Sander
Tetzlaff
Williams
Maronn

Baritones

Baumrucker
Bode
Drews
Kroll
Melchert
Rasche
Van Dyck

Basses

Hoefer
Johnson
Racherbaumer Rest
Schoenrock
Schroeder
Walch
Weber

The
1933 ELMS

MILDRED CLARK
President

LUELLA JAMESON
Business Manager

MINA TROUT
Secretary-Treasurer

FRANCES FRIEDMAN
Vice-president

JANE COFFEY
Accompanist

Women's Glee Club

The Glee Club is now in its third year, and, like other three-year-olds, is getting noisier and noisier. True, Hille, its conductor, says that occasionally he detects a little harmony now and then, but that is to be expected in a first class choral aggregation.

The ordinary, run-of-mine women's glee clubs usually sound like a bunch of tree frogs, but not so these girls. When they burst into one of their roaring sea chanties, the rafters tremble. Show us any tree frog outfit that could make a rafter tremble.

The girls made a tour this spring, singing at Petersburg, Illinois; St. Louis, Missouri; Burlington, Iowa; and several other towns, and from all reports, made a fine showing. With the additional attraction of the Sextette, and the solos of Gerda Mohri, they can present a concert that ranks with the best. Much credit goes to Mr. Hille for his unflagging zeal, determination, and whatever else it makes to make a lot of people sing next to each other without developing gourches and high blood pressure.

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Mohri, Jameson, Grimes, Chapman, Clark.

Second row: Winter, Friedman, Huwen, Bell, Deters, Buenger, Lienk.

Top row: Buck, Bunch, Weber, Klein, Heyl, Cenic, Hagge, Trout, Press.

WOMEN'S SEXTETTE

Gerda Mohri
Mildred Clark

Frances Friedman
Christine Deters

Mina Trout
Laura Press

PERSONNEL

LAURA PRESS, Reader

FRANCES FRIEDMAN, Vice-President

JANE COFFEY, Accompanist

GERDA MOHRI, Soloist

MILDRED CLARK, President

LUELLA JAMESON, Business Manager

MINA TROUT, Secretary

Harriet Bell
Leona Buenger
Eunice Buck
Lucille Bunch
Betty Cenic
Jessie Chapman

Jane Coffey
Christine Deters
Boney Grimes
Dorothy Hagge
Ruth Heyl
Virginia Huwen

Erdmuth Lienk
Gerda Mohri
Laura Press
Ruth Winter
Esther Weber
Martha Klein

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: F. Allrich, C. Schultz, Kneeland, Meiller, Beutler, Winnecke, Elliott, Conductor, G. Schulz, Helling.

Second row: Melchert, Breutner, Baumrucker, Ring, Steinmann, Kuether, Wolf, R. Allrich, Mallahan.

Third row: Racherbaumer, Koring, Doty, Piepenbrok, Nauman, Pfeil, Baumgaertel, Giese, Eastham.

Fourth row: Smith, Lamb, Kroll, Uthlaut, Kroencke, Kroenlein, Wintermeyer, Melberg.

The Band

At football games, at basketball games, the band caught one's ear with no gentle hold. Brasses and drums strove valiantly to outdo each other in quantity of sound. It was with difficulty that Director Elliott restrained the impetuous lungs of his enthusiastic charges.

The only time they ever approached being short-winded was after a little march up and down the gently sloping streets of Alton, Illinois, when they accompanied the football team to the Shurtleff game.

A full concert is being planned for sometime in May. If it equals the one of last year, we'll say the band is just a bit better than we thought it was.

*The
1933 ELMS*

Front row: Fischer, Snell, Friedman, Klein, Heyl, Press, Jameson, Clark, Rezatto, conductor.

Top row: Williams, Gieselmann, Ring, Stahlhut, Johnson, Piepenbrok, Rest, Racherbaumer.

The Campus Choir

Every Thursday morning sixteen black-robed figures, picked voices from the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, lend an air of dignity and solemnity to the chapel service. Under the direction of John L. Rezatto, and accompanied by the incomparable Hille at the console, they chant responses and sing appropriate anthems.

This is the second year of the choir's existence, and they show promise of becoming a permanent feature of our chapel services.

The 1933 ELMS

PAUL BODE
President

RALPH KUETHER
Vice-president

EDWIN HOEFER
Secretary

HERBERT WINTERMEYER
Treasurer

Pre-theological Club

The Pre-theological Club had its genesis in an exodus. A group of potential pastors made a trip to Eden Seminary in March, 1931, and out of the trip grew the idea to organize the club.

The chief contributions of the organization this year were to furnish moral support during examinations, to discourage chronic razzers from booing at the tennis matches, and to squelch, as much as possible, foot-stomping while leaving chapel. "Moon" Holden was requested to wear house-slipper.

This year the club was unable to make its annual trip to Eden, but many of the members said that they preferred it so in order that their first sight of Eden might be when they took up their residence there. Then Eden would come to them as a sudden revelation rather than as a gradual unfolding.

The
1933 ELMS

CHRISTINE DETERS
President

RALPH KUETHER
Vice-president

EMIL STEINMAN
Secretary

SIEGFRIED DIETRICH
Treasurer

The Oriental Club

The Oriental Club is the most exotic bimonthly organization on the campus. At their meetings they sit about on cushions, breathing the fragrant smoke of sandalwood incense. Bournouse, jellabas, and turbans are much in evidence. As the stem of the narghile is passed from member to member, the sacred chant is uttered thus: "Gandhi! Gandhi!! Gandhi!!!?" with a steadily increasing crescendo, until the third "Gandhi" is quite a sizeable yell.

Ways and means are then discussed whereby the dirty, naked, brown people on the banks of the Ganges may be made aware of the fact that they are dirty, naked and brown.

Incidentally, the club is affiliated with the Chicago Union of Student Volunteers, and close touch is kept with affairs in the mission fields.

PAUL MEYER
President

MINA TROUT
Program Chairman

KARL JUERGENS
Secretary-Treasurer

Cues

The above title is not the name of a billiard club, nor a group of Chinamen, but of the newly organized dramatic club. Ever since Masque and Buskin unmasked and unbuked some years ago, Theatre director Arends has been trying to revive interest in dramatics. Last fall he got a few interested people together, and helped them organize a new organization. (No, gentle reader, he did not suggest the name "Cues".)

Cues is noted for its simplicity of organization. Officers consist only of President, Program Chairman, and Secretary-treasurer. Meetings are held every three weeks. Entertainment of a dramatic kind is presented, discussions on acting, technique, and make-up are held, and refreshment is served.

The first vaudeville show on the campus was presented by Cues in April, and was a huge success. The Club plans to make this an annual event, to be "bigger and better every year". With the fine start Cues has had, it should develop into one of the best groups on the campus in a few years. (If they would only rechristen the thing!)

The 1933 ELMS

CHARLES BAUMRUCKER
President

BETTY ROEFER
Secretary

ELLSWORTH KNEELAND
Treasurer

SOLVEIG CHRISTENSEN
Vice-president

Le Cercle Francais

The French Club is just another new club that has sprung up on the campus during the past year. It's all Professor Stanger's fault. He barely suggested the idea one day in French Lit. 7, and Baumrucker, (who has good intentions but a terrible accent) and Kneeland (whose French is limited to the words "gottacigarette" and "amscray") fairly leaped at it. Accordingly, the club was shortly formed and Baumy and Kneeland were elected President and Treasurer, the grafters!

Meetings are held about every month, wherever somebody else isn't holding one. Everybody gets together and has a typically French time. Professor Stanger sits at a table and corrects papers, Sally Christensen and Betty Roefer work jig-saw puzzles, Pants and Baumy play two-handed stud, and your humble scribe practices counting up to ten on his fingers. The rest of the club usually goes over to the Y room to play checkers until the Student Union store opens. In April, the club held a party. It was quite a party. Since you don't have to know French to dance, or have to dance to know French, about three-fourths of the student body was there. The French aspect of the party consisted of (1) Professor Stanger's conversation, (2) two Apache costumes, and (3) candles stuck in beer bottles.

The
1933 ELMS

The College Theatre

Professor Arends completed one of the best years the Theatre has ever had. One major production, a group of one-act plays, and a set of Shakespearean scenes is a pretty high average for a college group of Elmhurst's size.

Last fall three students were asked to select a one-act play, direct it, and present it as part of an evening's entertainment. The plays were eminently successful, drawing a good house, and proving that Mr. Arends can turn out directors as well as actors.

Scenes from Hamlet, Macbeth, and the Merchant of Venice were presented during assembly hour one morning. Messrs. Paul Eisen and James Harz will go down in history as a couple of rare grave-diggers.

House Party, a rarin', tearin', three-act mystery-comedy-drama was presented in the gym the evening of May 19. Such veteran Theatre actors as Marian Stringer and Paul Meyer, thrilled and delighted the vast audience. (Note: Mr. Arends had planned to run the play for a couple of weeks in one of the Loop theatres, but unfortunately, a corpse, which disappeared in Act I, failed to show up in Act III, as scheduled, and hasn't been found at this writing. No corpse, no more play.)

Under the able guidance of Mr. Arends, and with the continued good influence of Cues, the Theatre should enjoy an even greater season next year.

The
1933 ELMS

The Women's Athletic Association

Solveig Christensen, President

Lucille Crane, Vice-president

Gerda Mohri, Secretary-treasurer

Esther Marsh, Business Manager

Margaret Riley, Hiking Master

Marion Smith, Faculty Advisor

It is the purpose of the Women's Athletic Association of Elmhurst College to develop in the girls an interest in athletic sports and hiking, and to instill in them a spirit of true sportsmanship, not to mention sportswomanship.

The W. A. A. was organized in 1931, and every woman student was eligible for membership.

Numerals and letters were awarded those having a sufficient number of points. Any member who earned 250 points was eligible for class numerals, which were awarded at the annual banquet.

The association participated in an inter-collegiate play day at North Central College, and in a tennis match with Wheaton College.

The inter-class basketball championship was won by the sophomore class. The tournament consisted of 3 out of 5 games.

Basket Ball Teams

SOPHOMORES

Solveig Christensen F.
Captain
Martha Klein F.
Harriet Bell F.
Esther Marsh F.
Lucille Bunch G.
Jessie Chapman G.
Eunice Buck G.
Jane Coffee G.

FRESHMEN

Grace Probst G.
Captain
Marguerite Solberg F.
Laura Press F.
Ruth He Hyle F.
Ruth Winter F.
Margaret Riley G.
Edith Schwarer G.
Leona Buenger G.

The
1933 ELMS

The Saturday Soviet

The youngest group upon the Elmhurst College campus is the novelty one known as the "Saturday Soviet". This organization has a well-rounded program, some of the features of which resemble the renowned "Sokol" groups in Bohemia and southern Germany. Some of the items of interest in this program are, (1) group outdoor exercise such as horse-back riding, hiking, calisthenics, etc., (2) diet supervision, (3) social and economic promotion and propaganda, (4) sane and healthy entertainment, (5) discussion and research in the general field of the social sciences. The group, which comprises the entire campus and interested townspeople, has no political organization: there are no officers, no laws, no fees or dues, no routine or ritual. Eight secretaries and committees are appointed with duties to arrange special week-end features in line with the broad purposes outlined in the program. The word "soviet" is taken to mean "committee organization", and Saturday is the usual day in the week in which the special novelty features are carried through. Important items in the college and town weekly calendars are selected for promotion, among other things, and the members of the group turn their energies toward making these items successful and worthwhile. During the latter part of the school year, the Saturday Soviet has been very much in evidence every week; and the pronounced tendency of the student body has been to await with very live interest the next announcement of the committees and secretaries. Much is hoped for this organization for the school year coming.

The 1933 ELMS

Maker of Men

The
1933 ELMS

Athletics

Early in the fall 450 huge, brawny young fellows galloped around on the gridiron, filled with the dear old spirit of college football. A few months later about 200 tall, fast, rangy, men were roaming about the basketball floor, shooting baskets with amazing accuracy. In spring sports there was a corresponding abundance of wonderful material that —excuse me. I just found out I was writing about a different school. I'm supposed to stick to Elmhurst. Well, early in the fall about twelve small boys and three or four fair-to-middling sized young men came out for football practice. These figures may be slightly exaggerated, but they illustrate that what Elmhurst needs is bigger and better men.

Coach Curtis did all that could be done with the material in hand, but the amount of it was too small, due to a small registration.

The athletic program is sufficiently varied. There is football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, and cross-country, and varsity members of these teams are awarded letter sweaters. The schedules of games and meets include contests with all the Little Nineteen schools of this district, besides several non-conference colleges.

Thus there is ample opportunity for inter-collegiate athletic competition, and if a man could be satisfied to look upon athletics as being more of a side-line or recreation, there would be much less attention paid to whether a team won or lost.

But a school's reputation is built upon its athletic teams. Therefore, let us have bigger and better men and we shall turn out winning teams to the glory of Elmhurst.

The 1933 ELMS

RALPH CURTIS

The Coach

This is the second year that Ralph Curtis has acted in the capacity of head coach. Ralph was graduated from Elmhurst College in June, 1930, and has been on the coaching staff ever since. During his undergraduate days, Ralph made a name for himself as being one of the greatest athletes Elmhurst has ever been proud to call hers.

He was most fortunate with the baseball team this year. More veterans were back for this sport than there were for football or basketball. The baseball season was therefore more successful than the football or basketball seasons.

As assistant to Ralph during the football and basketball seasons there was Carl Kerber, another Elmhurst alumnus, who also ranks as one of the greatest athletes in the history of the school. During the spring sports season, Ralph took charge of the baseball team, turning the track team over to John Holden, and the tennis team to C. C. Arends.

Ralph's youth, his knowledge of what he taught, and his ability to demonstrate just what he wanted, made him popular with the boys. We are sorry to hear that he has decided not to return next year.

The
1933 ELMS

HAROLD BLOOHM

Football Captain

Harold Bloohm, Pirate football captain of the last season, and erstwhile "fat boy"—not related to Tinning—playboy, lover, and student, takes his place in the Pirate Athletic Hall of Fame—(has-beens). (Don't call him any of the above pet names, for that privilege is reserved for his roommate only).

Next to playing football he likes to go to Beaver Dam, Wisconsin,—or is it Bensenville, Illinois, Harold?

Bloohm has been a most colorful football player in his college career, and his unanimous choice for the captaincy bears out this statement well.

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Rebman, Banas, O. Wintermeyer, H. Wintermeyer, Behle, Kroll, James DeTuerk.

Second row: Schafer, Taebel, Eilers, Denbeaux, Steve, Bloohm, John DeTuerk, Dreusick, Schoenrock.

Top row: Curtis, coach, Rest, Klick, Niensted, Allrich, Drews, Strand, Kerber, assistant coach.

FOOTBALL SUMMARY

Sept. 25                    Milwaukee 19, Elmhurst 6
 Oct. 2                    Morton 0, Elmhurst 14
 Oct. 16                    Shurtleff 14, Elmhurst 0
 Oct. 23                    Wheaton 7, Elmhurst 0

Oct. 30                    North Central 38, Elmhurst 6
 Nov. 5                    McKendree 25, Elmhurst 6
 Nov. 12                    Millikin 13, Elmhurst 0

The
1933 ELMS

Football

Elmhurst preserved her great name in the football world by going through her extensive season against first-class opposition with seven defeats out of eight games (including a victory over the high school).

The coach's call for material was met by a great response on the part of the student body. Several hundred students started their drive to realize their one great ambition — to make the honor roll.

Well, the practice started and the pack of agriculturists (hicks to you) began to take on some of the characteristics of — football players. The freshmen began to dream of making long runs through the line for touchdowns, yet they never did any more than wear out a not-very-good pair of pants on the bench.

The squad consisted of such famous men as Behle, our full-back—who tried to wrestle his girl friend at Alton; Herbie Wintermeyer, our popular gigolo and bigamist; Bloohm, captain and erstwhile man mountain who did all his training on Saturday night at Bensenville; John DeTuerk, who chews a wad that's big enough to choke a hippopotamus, and who never misses a window when he expectorates (how about it coach?); "Red" Steve, the boy who blushes when you look at him; and Cutie Schaefer, our two hundred pound safety man who made such wonderful tackles. (Was you there, Charlie? Then he made wonderful tackles).

The administration was forced to hire an enormous corps of ushers to direct the crowds into their seats in our mammoth stadium. The student body when led by their brilliant and gymnastic cheer leaders produced great cheers and yells that rocked the town at frequent intervals during the process of a game. This great system of cheer leading was the main help that boosted our team on to the championship of the great city of Elmhurst. During the homecoming game skyrockets burst forth the hopes of the blue and white, but to no avail; we were doomed to defeat.

The season opened with a defeat at the hands of the Milwaukee Teachers, but then we hit our stride and went into the next games with high hopes. Morton was met; ah, what a game this Morton College game turned out to be. Morton, after receiving a 51 to 0 setback by North Central came to Elmhurst with its midget team and gave Elmhurst a battle which finally ended in a "win" for the old Alma Mater—and what a win — fourteen to nothing when everyone expected the half century mark to be passed by our great scoring combination. Our friends—Slippery Dreusicke—I say Slippery because he slipped whenever he could get hold of the ball) — and Behle, were finally able to wade through the half pints of Morton and get away for a couple of touchdowns instead of of the bucketsfull that we had expected. After Morton, we fell victim to the powerful Shurtleff team—14 to 0. Wheaton took us down in their homecoming game 7 to 0, which was followed by a North Central licking 38 to 6. We dropped our homecoming game to McKendree 27 to 7. The score in this game was made on a pass from Strand to Wintermeyer. The play was disputed by McKendree, but the officials were hired by us, so we received the decision. The final game was played with Millikin and ended in a 13 to 0 defeat. The Millikin boys met a tough bunch of fighting Pirates, but were too good for them.

Taken all in all, the season may not have produced many victories, nor were our players "All American", but they tried hard to win and we're proud of them. The bus rides were great experiences and we look upon the passing of the season with regret.

The 1933 ELMS

The
1933 ELMS

MILTON ZIELINSKI

Basketball Captain

Zulu, what a man, what a man, Zulu! Yes, he was the basketball captain this year—you'd never guess it though, by his haircut! What an eye; he could hit the hoop from anywhere on the floor—if he could sneak up on it!

Milt was a good basketball player—as basketball players come and go. Really a good man both offensive and defensive—(mainly offensive). Zielinski is a two year letterman and a Senior. Next year's squad is going to feel his absence very keenly—well, here's to you, Zulu!

Front row: Umbeck, Curtis, coach, Zielinski, Kerber, assistant coach, Uthlaut.
Second row: Duhan, Bloesch, Niensted, Drawert, Klick.
Top row: Wegener, Biasch, Hotz, Pfeil, Helling, Schafer.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

Dec. 8	De Paul 30, Elmhurst 14
Dec. 10	Morton 46, Elmhurst 27
Dec. 17	Morton 42, Elmhurst 27
Jan. 7	Aurora 36, Elmhurst 57
Jan. 12	Wheaton 46, Elmhurst 35
Jan. 13	North Central 42, Elmhurst 19
Jan. 21	Lake Forest 35, Elmhurst 32

Jan. 28	Aurora 28, Elmhurst 30
Feb. 4	Macomb 33, Elmhurst 28
Feb. 8	De Kalb 44, Elmhurst 18
Feb. 16	Wheaton 41, Elmhurst 45
Feb. 17	North Central 46, Elmhurst 29
Feb. 22	Lake Forest 32, Elmhurst 43
Feb. 27	De Kalb 69, Elmhurst 41

The
1933 ELMS

Basketball

The basketball season opened with the usual prospects—for better or for worse. Zielinski and Uthlaut were the only lettermen to return this year. Remember the game when the Pirates played the Bensenville orphanage? What a game! It was in this game that coach Curtis perfected his eight man defense. The Pirates won this tilt by the close score of 50 to 50. Becky Schafer came in handy by sitting on top of the back board and dropping the ball through the hoop. For variety, he would hide behind the mats, coming out at opportune moments—opportune for the Bucs.

The Pirates' schedule of the second semester was more successful from the point of view of games won. This probably was due to the addition of "Duke" Duhan, a colorful basketball player from Baltimore, Maryland. His sensational baskets, which were earned by his fast breaking, was a feature of the games.

To make a long story short is what the Pirates did to Wheaton on their own floor, for they vanquished Wheaton in the season's thriller by the score of 45 to 41. The boys did the same to the Lake Forest lads, but they couldn't take down the conference champs from DeKalb—try as they might.

Zielinski and Umbeck were the only senior members on the squad. Their loss will undoubtedly be felt next year. But if the rest of the boys, such as Uthlaut and Duhan, return, the boys will probably have a good squad. "Chubby" Eilers and his guarding gave the spectators something to talk about. "Pete" Helling—the only fellow with bachelor ideas on the squad—did some excellent work at the guard position. Major Hotz, with his short hair cut, was a regular cut up on the floor. By the way, short hair cuts, Von Hindenburg style, were all the vogue on the squad. Wally Pfeil, "Piffle", as it were, helped drop in the buckets—especially in the early season games.

The
1933 ELMS

AL BEHLE

Baseball Captain

"Pudgy" has a build like Hack Wilson, hits the ball like Babe Ruth, catches like Lombardi, pitches like Lou Warnke, runs like a duck—and never entertains thoughts of a girl friend. (Not just one!) Al probably is one of the finest ball players to play on an Elmhurst nine. Last year Al led the conference in home runs. We almost believe that he thinks, eats, and sleeps baseball. Of course we can't prove that he thinks, but have to chance that. Yes, this lad is a dandy—and we hope that he may lead his team to many victories.

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Chapleau, Halgren, Wegener.

Second row: Bork, Pfeil, Klick, Bloesch, Uthlaut, Niensted, Behle, Zielinski.

Back row: Curtis, coach, Rest, Vetter, Baumrucker, Kaiser, Anderson, R. Allrich, Wintermeyer, F. Allrich, manager.

Baseball

The Elmhurst College Baseball squad returned from their brilliant training season at Oakland, California, early in April. They opened the season with a smashing 11-0 victory over the National League Champion Cubs behind the Du-Page Laundry before a crowd of 60,000 co-eds and Ralph Curtis.

After this auspicious beginning the Pirates kept up their winning streak by a glorious 20-10 victory over Wheaton College at Wheaton.

Zielinski, Bork, and "Pee Wee" Red Wegener proved to be mighty with their war clubs against at least three pitchers. With the situation thus well in hand we expect the Buc batsmen to come through the season with flying colors.

SCHEDULE

Concordia College—April 12—
Home.
Aurora—April 13—Home.
Morton—April 19—Home.
North Central—April 22—
There.
Wheaton—April 26—There.

Lake Forest—April 29—Home.
North Central—May 5—Home.
Wheaton—May 10—Home.
Armour Tech.—May 12—There.
Lake Forest—May 13—There.
Armour Tech.—May 20—Home.

The
1933 ELMS

ARMIN DREUSICKE

Track Captain

Our big blond captain of the Track Team is none other than Armin Dreusicke—"Drip" to you—but "Honey" to Eunice and myself. "Drip thought that he could steal all of the basketball team's thunder by having all of his hair cut off, but it only lost him Betty, and oh, did he grieve for her! For all of that he must be congratulated—it isn't every man who can qualify for the U. S. Olympic team in the broad jump with a leap of 24' 4" or run the hundred in 9:8 seconds as does our Captain, but his best work is done off the cinders. That work is minding his roommate—how he can keep tab on where Bloohm is supposed to be, in Bensenville or at school, has always been a puzzle to me.

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Schroeder, Bessmer, Schulz.

Second row: Kester, Wegman, John DeTuerk, James DeTuerk, Dreusicke, Bloohm, Schuett, Wolf, Segner, Eisen.

Top row: Kneeland, manager, Harz, Meyer, Breutner, Steve, Denbeaux, Walch, Johnson, Kaiser, Price, Karasek, Sheahan, Holden, coach.

Track

The high spot of the season was reached on May 13, when Elmhurst was host to an Intercollegiate Invitational Meet. The Pirates placed fourth in the meet, being barely nosed out by Loyola. Dreusicke's leaping out of the park earned him a first, and Ray Schuett did some phenomenal sprinting to help win the mile relay, one of the most thrilling races ever seen on the Elmhurst field. Dreusicke jumped 24 feet 2 inches, and accounted for his miserable showing by saying that he thought all along that the event was the pole vault. As for Schuett, DeTuerk, Wolf, and some of the other lads, they are all entered in the Kentucky Derby for 1934.

The 1933 Schedule follows:

April 1, Armour Relays.

April 22, Morton at Elmhurst.

April 29, North Central, Wheaton and Elmhurst at Naperville.

May 6, Wheaton at Elmhurst.

May 13, Intercollegiate Invitational at Elmhurst.

May 19-20, Little Nineteen Conference Meet at Galesburg.

The
1933 ELMS

RICHARD GERFEN

Tennis Captain

Captain Gerfen, ah-ha! That's the man! His chief interest lies in tennis, and—his chief hobby is buying candy bars! Call him the "Candy Kid" sometime when you get tired of life.

I'm sure that his victory over a "Big Ten" lad from the U. of Chicago in a recent tennis match, gave us extreme pleasure.

Dick always has been a good tennis player during his college career—and may his success continue!

The
1933 ELMS

Sander, Gieselmann, Haag, Hoefer, Umbeck, Helling, Gerfen, Hoecker, Arends, coach.

Tennis

Who said that tennis was an old man's game? With such spry young fellows as Captain (Fagan) Gerfen, Carl (Ellsworth Vines) Haag, (Spurnee) Umbeck, and (Prexy) Sander, we conclude that it must have the edge on a game of marbles as far as physical exertion is concerned.

Anything short of a little nineteen championship will be a disappointment if early season showings mean anything, for the netmen defeated DeKalb and North Central in straight sets 6-0.

SCHEDULE

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| April 8—U. of Chicago—There.                  | May 6—District Meet (Wheaton).           |
| April 20—U. of Chicago—There.                 | May 9—Wheaton—Here.                      |
| April 21—Northwestern U.—There.           | May 12 & 13—Conference Meet(Macomb). |
| April 24—DeKalb—Here.                         | May 15—Lake Forest—There.                |
| April 26—North Central—There.             | May 16—De Kalb—There.                    |
| April 27—U. of Chicago—Here.                  | May 19—Eureka—There.                     |
| April 29—Elmhurst Town Ten-nis Club—Here. | May 20—Illinois Wesleyan—There.      |
| May 4—North Central—Here.                     | May 23—Wheaton—There.                    |
|   | May 24—Lake Forest—Here.                 |

The
1933 ELMS

BRUCE KESTER

Cross Country Captain

Congratulations, Bruce, congratulations!—and may we wish Virginia happiness! Folks! Here we have a man who was the cross country captain, coach, trainer, and manager! Larry—turn the crank!

Many's the long hour Bruce spent making and building his undiscovered material into a cross country team. Good work, lad, good work! Now after another congratulation, the "old Maestro" will attempt to sing in a different pitch!

The
1933 ELMS

Front row: Price, Kester, Hoefer, Wolf, Segner, Rodriguez.

Back row: Bowers, Tetzlaff, Siemsen, Bessmer, Schultz.

Cross Country

Lettermen: Captain Kester, Hoefer, Rodriguez, Segner, and Wolf—with legs of rubber, and lungs like Zeppelins, that's why they're cross country men. To say the least, the distance runner faces a most grueling task—with no hope of giving up, once a race is started. The athletes this year concluded what one might call a fairly successful season. That is, they showed some wins in their scoring column. We are sorry to say that Adrian Rodriguez will not be back next year. Eddie Hoefer will, of course, but because I failed to "get" anything on him, I can't tell anything on him. You're lucky, Eddie! With all these boys back next year, prospects aren't bad, not bad!

SUMMARIES

- Oct. 2—Wheaton, North Central, and Elmhurst at Wheaton.
- Oct. 9—Milwaukee 24½, Elmhurst 30½.
- Oct. 16—North Central 27, Elmhurst 28.
- Oct. 22—Wheaton 36, North Central 37, Elmhurst 47.
- Oct. 29—Wheaton 36, Milwaukee 52, North Central 59, Elmhurst 68.
- Nov. 5—Morton 34, Wheaton "B" 68, Elmhurst 27.
- Nov. 12—North Central 20, Elmhurst 35.

Intramurals

It is the opinion of many that "if a college has an inadequate program of Intramural Athletics, it fails to contribute to the fullest possible extent to student life." Accordingly, we planned an all-year Intramural Program, with league contests in touch football, basketball, and playground baseball, and one-day track and cross-country meets. Since Mr. Arends, tennis coach, wished to supervise an open tennis tournament, keeping his eyes open for team prospects, it was deemed inadvisable to attempt intramural tennis.

Something new in the organization of competitive groups was tried this year—namely, class groups—the Seniors and the Juniors each comprising one team, while two teams were chosen from both the Sophomore and the Freshman classes, making a total of six teams. This division carried throughout the entire year, for all sports. All in all, we feel that the division of the men students into competitive class groups was a good move, for, among other things, it tended to heighten feelings of class solidarity.

Eleven men competed in the First Intramural Cross Country meet. Segner, Wolf, and Price, Soph Red harriers, ran one-two-six to give their team an edge over the Soph Blue runners, Hoefer, Gus Schultz, and Siemsen, who finish three-four-five to cinch second place.

Touch football, played during rain, shine, or snow, was won by the Soph Blues, with their classmates, the Soph Reds, in second place, one game behind. Championship awards—gold footballs—were made to the following members of the Soph Blue squad: Bessmer, Bloesch, P. Kaiser, Kroenlein, Sennewald, Siemsen, Stahlhut, Uthlaut, Walch, Weber, Bowers, and Gieselman. During the season, eighty men played on the six football squads, in a total of thirty games.

Two leagues were organized in basketball, the Zoo League of four teams supplementing the Class League, of six teams. A play-off between the winners of the two leagues resulted in the crowning of the Soph Blues as champions. Gold basketballs were awarded to the following: R. Allrich, Bowers, Hoefer, Weber, Kroenlein, Steve, Drews, F. Rest, Gus Schultz, and Manager Gieselman. Forty-two league games and nine post-season contests, a total of fifty-one games, were played, ninety-nine players competing. The post-season contests included the Tiger-Soph Blue playoff, contests between the First and Second All-Star teams, and home-and-home games with the Intramural Basketball Champions of North Central and Wheaton.

The Intramural Track Meet, held just before the Easter holidays, furnished the Soph Reds a chance to win their second championship. The Juniors and the Soph Blues tied for second place. Twenty-five men scored points in this meet, with Holden, Senior star, counting four firsts and two fourths for a total of twenty-two points to cop individual honors. Wendland, Soph Red speedster, won three firsts and ran anchor on the winning relay team for second individual honors.

Thus far only one round has been completed in Intramural baseball, and the two Sophomore squads are leading the League. Duhan, Soph Blue hurler, has been chiefly responsible for his team's unblemished record, pitching and winning all five games. The Soph Reds, with one loss in five starts, are eager to take advantage of any slip made by the league leading Blues, who should win their third championship. Despite some mistakes, we feel that this year we have laid a good foundation for a permanent program of Intramural Athletics. That which we have learned from this year's experiences ought to help make next year's program an even greater success.

Signed:

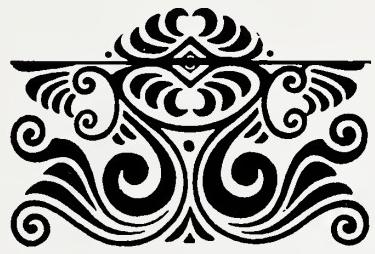

Walter Pfeil, '33, Intramural Manager.
Werner Wegener, '34, Assistant.

The 1933 ELMS

The 1933 ELMS

Tinpan Alley

The 1933 ELMS

KARL M. CHWOROWSKY
Director of School of Music

Wartburg College, A.B., 1906; Wartburg Seminary, 1909; University of Wisconsin, M.A., 1915; Pastor of St. Peter's Church, Elmhurst, 1922—; Elmhurst College School of Music, 1931—.

WALDEMAR B. HILLE

Executive Secretary, Director of Women's Glee Club, and Instructor in Organ and Piano

Elmhurst College, A.B., 1929; Pupil of Olive Neel, Clarence Eidem of Cosmopolitan School, Jan Chia-pusso, Bush Conservatory, Rudolph Reuter, Public School Music at American Conservatory; Elmhurst College, 1929—

W. WRAY FINNEMORE

Professor of Piano, Organ and History of Music

B.M., Northwestern University School of Music; work with Chester Shockly, Rossetter Cole, G. C. Bainum, Felix Borowski; Elmhurst College, 1926—.

JOHN L. REZATTO

Director of the Elmhurst College Men's Glee Club

Central State Teacher College, B.Ed., 1931; Public School Music at Chicago Conservatory; Studied with Dr. Charles Norman Granville, Madame Schumann-Heink; Supervisor of Music at Shawano High School; Elmhurst College, 1931—.

GLENN MOST

B.M. at Chicago Conservatory, 1931; Pupil of Bozea Oumiross, Dr. Charles Norman Granville; Elmhurst College, 1931—.

The
1933 ELMS

School of Music

The School of Music is going on eight years old. In spite of the comparative youth of this division of Elmhurst College, the school has established Elmhurst College as the artistic center of the community.

The Reverend Karl M. Chworsky is the present director of the school. He is well known throughout Elmhurst as a pianist, accompanist, and musical critic. Associated with Rev. Chworsky are Wray Finnemore, instructor in piano and organ; Waldemar Hille, instructor in piano and organ, and conductor of the Women's Glee Club, as well as executive secretary of the School of Music; John L. Rezatto, conductor of the Men's Glee Club; Glenn Most, instructor in voice; Lois Rogers Chiapusso, professor of piano; Gwladys Evans Mac Arthur, director of the Voco Study Class; and Florence H. Moore, instructor in drawing, commercial art, composition, and design.

Certain professors in the college have been agitating to have the School of Music moved over to the stone quarry in order that the vociferous students of voice culture might prove a little less distracting to the people who are trying to sleep through classes. However, the objections of these professors have been over-ruled by the assertions of others that it is a good thing for the students to remain awake. Thus the School of Music has remained ensconced in Irion Hall.

The 1933 ELMS

The
1933 ELMS

Prize-winning Snapshot

Here is the snapshot which put the others so far in the shade that they looked like negatives. The only detracting element in this picture is the form of Gus Schulz standing so boldly in the foreground. Gus admits that the picture would have been infinitely better if he had hidden behind a blade of grass or gone to lie on the bottom of the lily pond. Nevertheless the judges, including such men as Don B. De Sille, J. Montgomery Ward, Saul Greenman, and the Fugitive from a Chain Gang, agreed that this should be the picture to win the—but ask Gus sometime what the prize was.

The
1933 ELMS

List of Advertisers

Arnold Brothers, Inc.	123
County Cleaners	122
Dew Drop Chocolate Shop	119
Eden Publishing House	122
Elmhurst-Chicago Stone Co.	123
Elmhurst College	117
Elmhurst Elks Club	122
Elmhurst Laundry	119
Elmhurst Lumber and Coal Co.	118
Elmhurst State Bank	118
Carl Fischer, Inc.	119
Roy Hartless Linen Supply Co.	119
H. C. Hesse and Co.	122
Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co.	124
Michael Kross	119
J. C. Licht Co.	122
Matzene Studios	121
Richelieu	123
Robillard	119
John Sexton and Co.	123
Soukup's Hardware Store	119
Steele-Wedeles Co.	122
Whitehall Tavern	118
Zion Evangelical Church	119
Zoub Drug Store	122

The 1933 ELMS

The Best
ADVERTISEMENT of ELMHURST COLLEGE is the ACHIEVEMENT of its STUDENTS

For catalog and other information, write to . . .

Elmhurst College
ELMHURST, ILLINOIS

The
1933 ELMS

ELMHURST STATE BANK

ELMHURST, ILLINOIS

A Bank with a Strong Cash Reserve

Capital .....	$ 250,000.00
Surplus .....	50,000.00
Assets .....	2,500,000.00

Under State Supervision

Henry C. Schumacher.....President
Alben F. Bates...First Vice-President
Otto W. Balgeman.....Vice-President
L. T. Furnas.....Vice-President

Otto A. Popp.....Cashier & Secretary
Robt. H. Stone.....Assistant Cashier
Walter G. Koenig.....Assistant Cashier
W. G. Schaefer.....Assistant Secretary

Thirty-eight Years of Safety and Service

Acts as Executor, Administrator, Guardian, and Trustee of Estates, and all other trust capacities

Ample capital and surplus, together with efficient officers, place this institution in a position to handle accounts of banks, individuals, firms and corporations on a most satisfactory basis

Safe Deposit Vaults

Phone, Elmhurst 4224

Telephones, 19 or 92

WHITEHALL TAVERN

A Delightful Place to Eat

Dancing Every Evening

We cater to special parties and banquets

York Road and Grand Ave.

LOU KAPLAN, Proprietor

ELMHURST LUMBER and COAL CO.

FILL YOUR COAL BIN
NOW!!!

at the low summer price

Prospect at Park Avenue
Elmhurst, Illinois

The 1933 ELMS

Compliments of

H. H. ROBILLARD

Elmhurst, Illinois

Students and faculty will find our service the ideal way of having their laundry done

ELMHURST LAUNDRY

155-161 West First Street

Elmhurst, Illinois

Phone, Elmhurst 2992

Compliments

Dew Drop Chocolate Shop

Telephone, Elmhurst 655

MICHAEL KROSS
Attorney and Counsellor at Law

Suite 201 State Bank Bldg.

105 South York Street

Elmhurst, Illinois

CARL FISCHER, INC.
Publishers - Importers - Dealers

Music in Every Form and Combination
School Music Our Specialty

Much of the School Music whether Solos, Orchestra or Band, is from the Catalog of

CARL FISCHER, INC.
Kimball Hall Bldg.

306 S. Wabash Ave. Chicago, Ill.

Send for Free Catalog

Compliments of

Sunday School of the Zion Evangelical Church
Indianapolis, Ind.

FREDERICK R. DARIES, Pastor

Shop and Save at

S O U K U P ' S for value with service in

Hardware - Paints and Sporting Goods

116 N. York St. Elmhurst, Ill.

Austin 0639 - Phones - Austin 0640

Roy Hartless Linen Supply Company

Furnishers of Coats, Aprons, Towels, Etc.
A Complete Office Towel Supply

4719-21 West Lake Street

Austin-Chicago

The 1933 ELMS

The 1933 ELMS

MATZENE

---

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER for
1933 ELMS

6 North Michigan Avenue
Central 7003

The 1933 ELMS

BOOK OF CLEVELAND HIGH WINS AWARD

Given First Place Among Annuals of Missouri Schools

By Associated Press

COLUMBIA, MO., October 25.—The year books of Cleveland High School of St. Louis, Ritenour High of Overland, and Hickman High of Columbia won the principal awards in the 1932 contest conducted by the Missouri Interscholastic Press Association.

Winners were announced here today by T. C. Morelock, acting dean of the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri and secretary of the association.

"The Beacon" of Cleveland was adjudged the best annual published by high schools with an enrollment of more than 1000 students. "The Joplimo" of Joplin High School was second and the "Red and Black" of St. Louis Central High was third.

In the contest for schools having between 500 and 999 students, "The Melaureus" of Ritenour High was first. The others, in order, were:

PRINTED AND BOUND BY EDEN PUBLISHING HOUSE
ST. LOUIS, MO.

Compliments of a Friend

H. C. Hesse and Company
Men's Wear

Compliments of County Cleaners and Shoe Repair Co.
Reliable Hatters

151 N. York St. Phone 644
Opposite York Theater

Compliments of
ELMHURST ELKS CLUB

Largest Drug Store in largest building of Du Page County
COMPLETE, EFFICIENT DRUG SERVICE

ZOUB DRUG STORE
Phone, Elm 5 101 S. York St.

J. C. LICHT COMPANY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
WALL PAPER AND PAINTERS SUPPLIES
170 N. York St., Elmhurst
Phone, Elmhurst 1242

With Compliments of STEELE-WEDELES CO.
Dearborn Street Bridge
Chicago, U. S. A.

The
1933 ELMS

Education . . . so much more than just reading, writing, and arithmetic! . . . The art of gracious living . . . the appreciation of good foods . . . things the future hostess and host should learn . . . and can learn only through knowing the finest foods . . . And there are none finer than Richelieu Quality Products.

RICHELIEU
Grocer Agents
Elmhurst - - - Illinois

SPEAKING OF EDUCATION:

Food-wise folks are specifying these Arnold Bros.' "Famous for Flavor" meats because they have learned that such delicious goodness is not obtainable in other brands:

"Guest Ham"

"America's finest party Ham"

"Luxemburgers"

"A new sausage from an old German recipe"

"All American"

"Famous for Flavor" Hams, Bacon, Sausage

"Crystal Coated"

"Flavor-protected" Sausage

ARNOLD BROTHERS, INCORPORATED

656-670 W. Randolph St.

In Chicago since 1868

Quality Wise

Serve
EDELWEISS

JOHN SEXTON & CO.
MANUFACTURING WHOLESALE GROCERS
CHICAGO BROOKLYN

ELMHURST - CHICAGO
STONE CO.

CRUSHED LIMESTONE AGRICULTURAL LIMESTONE

ESTABLISHED 1883

Compliments of
ELMHURST COLLEGE
STUDENT UNION

The 1933 ELMS

SECURITY

Jahn and Ollier Again

SOUND managerial policies and long, successful experience have provided us with sufficient equipment, adequate personnel, and ample resources to render dependable service as artists and makers of fine printing plates. That you will be secure from chance, is our first promise.

JAHN & OLLIER ENGRAVING CO.
817 West Washington Blvd., - Chicago, Illinois

In the foreground - Ft. Dearborn re-erected in Grant Park on Chicago's lake front, Illustration by Jahn & Ollier Art Studios.

The
1933 ELMS

Roll Call

SENIORS

Allrich, Frederick
Ansley, Elmer
Bauer, Hugo
Blohm, Harold Bode, Paul
David, Walter
Deters, Christine Eiben, Edwin Elliott, Richard Holden, John Kerber, Carl
Lienk, Erdmuth
Melberg, William Nielsen, Ernest
Pfeil, Walter
Reimler, Arthur
Sander, Elmer
Stegner, Irvin
Trout, Mina
Umbeck, Sharvey
Winnecke, Edwin Zielinski, Milton

JUNIORS

Bauersfeld, Carol
Baumrucker, Charles
Behle, Albert
Beutler, Leon
Biasch, Wilbert
Cash, Laurel
Clark, Mildred
Crane, Lucile
DeTuerk, James DeTuerk, John
Dietrich, Siegfried
Dreusicke, Armin
Friedman, Frances
Gauer, Wilbert
Gerfen, Richard Hansen, Emil
Harz, James Haude, William Helling, Elmer
Henning, Wilbert
Hotz, Walter
Juergens, Karl Kingon, Harold Klein, Martha
Kneeland, Ellsworth
Kuether, Ralph
Lindorff, Martin
Meyer, Paul
Miller, Melvin Rebman, Ralph Rest, Heinrich

Ring, Harry Rodriguez, Adrian
Schroeder, Elver
Schultz, Carl
Shearmire, Fred
Snell, Elizabeth
Steinmann, Emil Stone, Alice Stringer, Marian VanDyck, Theodore
Warner, Verne
Wegener, Werner
Wintermeyer, Herbert
Wintermeyer, Ora

SOPHOMORES

Allrich, Rudolph
Anderson, Roy
Beck, Reinhard
Bell, Harriet
Berdau, John Bessmer, William Blinn, Merle
Bloesch, Paul Bolin, Shirley Bork, Frank
Bowers, Edward Bunch, Lucille
Chapman, Jessie
Christensen, Solveig
Coffey, Jane
Crenshaw, Henry
Doty, Charles
Drawert, Wallace
Drews, Edward Duhan, Henry
Dusheck, George
Eilers, Roy
Emerson, Edward Fischer, Gertrude
Gieselmann, Roy
Grimes, Bonez
Haag, Carl
Hoefer, Edwin Hughes, Everett
Johnson, Marvin
Kaiser, Paul
Kester, Bruce
Klick, Louis
Kroenlein, Carl
Madsen, Frederic Mallahan, John
Marsh, Esther
Mohri, Gerda
Naumann, Clarence
Ortwein, Herman

Paape, Charles
Price, Haskett
Rathmann, Robert Rest, Fred
Rheinsmith, Lewis
Robbins, Wyman
Kroll, Frank
Mabee, Robert
Saam, Katherine
Sample, James
Schuett, Raymond
Schulz, Gustave
Segner, Clyde
Sennewald, Gerhard
Siemsen, Alvin
Stahlhut, Herbert
Stech, Roland
Stegeman, Virginia Steve, John
Straub, Barbara
Taebel, Wilbert
Treat, Harold Uthlaut, Chester
Vetter, Roland
Wagner, Merrill
Walch, William Weber, Esther
Weber, Herman
Wegman, John
Wendland, Herman

FRESHMEN

Banas, John
Baumgaertel, Henry Bay, Doris Berg, Robert Boldt, Kenneth Breutner, Carl
Buenger, Leona
Burger, Virginia
Bush, Robert
Cenic, Betty
Chapleau, Raymond
Craig, Mabel
Denbeaux, Fred
Diehl, Edwin Donley, Alan
Eisen, Paul
Finley, Mary
Giese, Festo
Hagge, Dorothy Hagstrom, Ruth Halgren, John
Henderson, Jane
Heyl, Ruth
Hoecker, Vernon
Houtz, Betty
Huwen, Virginia

James, George
Jameson, Luella
Johnson, Phoebe
Johnson, Robert Kaiser, Helen Kaiser, Robert Karasek, Robert
Kirchenwitz, Elmer
Kneeland, Warren
Koring, Armin
Krause, Frederick
Kroencke, Alfred Krohne, Theodore
Kruse, Frederick
Lache, Ernest
Lamb, William Lanata, Frank Lindoerfer, George
Maronn, Armin
Meiller, Edward Meiller, Paul
Melchert, Ernest
Munz, Armin
Niensted, John Peterson, Ernest
Piepenbrok, Paul
Popp, Lowell Press, Laura Probst, Grace
Quest, Roland
Racherbaumer, William Rasche, Theodore
Reilly, Joe
Riley, Margaret
Rodriguez, Marco
Roefer, Betty
Schafer, Frederick
Schmale, Herbert
Schoenrock, Paul
Schwarer, Edith Sheahan, Robert
Solberg, Marguerite
Spyrison, Thomas
Strand, William
Tetzlaff, Herbert
Weinert, Leola
Williams, John Winter, Ruth
Wolf, Leonard

PART-TIME

Anderson, Warren
Buck, Eunice
Clayton, Elison
Kingon, Grace
Kleffman, Walter
Kreis, R. D.
Nielson, George
Gruenewald, Gus

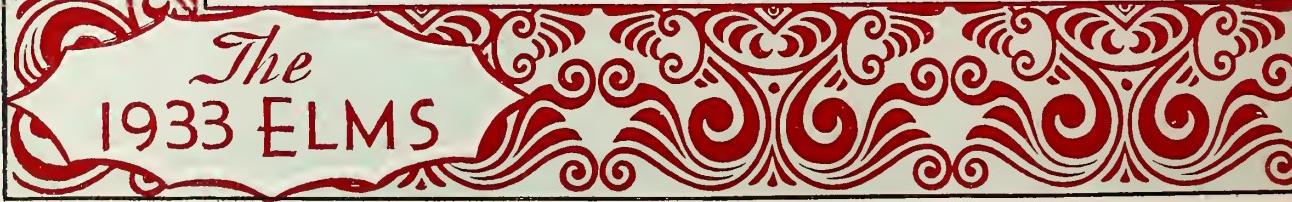

AUTOGRAPHS

The
1933 ELMS

AUTOGRAPHS

The 1933 ELMS

